ORDER

Plaintiffs,

v.

LORETTA E. LYNCH, in her official capacity as Attorney
General of the United States;
JAMES B. COMEY, in his official capacity as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and CHRISTOPHER M. PIEHOTA, in his official capacity as Director of the FBI Terrorist Screening Center,

Defendants.

BROWN, Judge.

This matter comes before the Court on the parties' remaining Cross-Motions for Summary Judgment. Those Motions are:

1. Plaintiffs' individual Renewed Motions (#210, #212, #214, #216, #218, #220) for Partial Summary Judgment; and

2. Defendants' Cross-Motions (#241, #242, #247, #248, #249, #250) for Partial Summary Judgment regarding individual Plaintiffs.

On March 28, 2016, the Court issued an Opinion and Order (#321), Latif v. Lynch, No. 3:10-cv-00750-BR, 2016 WL 1239925, at *15 (D. Or. Mar. 28, 2016), in which it granted in part and denied in part Defendants' Combined Cross-Motion (#251) for Partial Summary Judgment; denied Plaintiffs' Renewed Combined Motion (#206) for Partial Summary Judgment; and deferred ruling on Defendants' Cross-Motions (#241, #242, #247, #248, #249, #250) for Partial Summary Judgment regarding individual Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' individual Renewed Motions (#210, #212, #214, #216, #218, #220) for Partial Summary Judgment to permit Defendants to supplement the record as the Court directed with sufficient information for the Court to complete its analysis and rule on those Motions. In particular, the Court concluded in its Opinion and Order that it could not completely resolve the parties' Cross-Motions as to procedural due-process because it could not "determine from this record whether the unclassified summaries of Defendants' reasons for placing Plaintiffs on the No-Fly List conveyed sufficient material information to Plaintiffs to satisfy procedural due-process standards because the record does not reflect what information Defendants withheld or the reasons for withholding such information." Latif, 2016 WL 1239925, at *15.

Accordingly, the Court directed Defendants to submit to the Court as to each Plaintiff the following: (1) a summary of any material information (including material exculpatory or inculpatory information) that Defendants withheld from the notice letters sent to each Plaintiff and (2) an explanation of the justification for withholding that information, including why Defendants could not make additional disclosures.

Id., at 20. The Court stated:

Defendants' supplemental submission may be in the form of declarations or other statements from an officer or officers with personal knowledge of the No-Fly List determinations as to each Plaintiff. If necessary to protect sensitive national security information, Defendants may make such submissions ex parte and in camera. If Defendants submit any materials ex parte and in camera, however, Defendants must also make a filing on the public record that memorializes the submission and provides as much public disclosure of the substance of Defendants' submission as national security considerations allow.

Id. As noted, this matter is now back before the Court on those still unresolved Cross-Motions for Summary Judgment.<sup>1</sup>

Since the Court's March 28, 2016, Opinion and Order, Plaintiffs filed on April 12, 2016, a Notice (#324) of the Death of a Party, Steven William Washburn. Because Washburn only sought prospective relief, Plaintiffs concede all claims as to <sup>1</sup> The Court incorporates herein the factual background and legal analysis in its March 28, 2016, Opinion and Order (#321), see Latif, 2016 WL 1239925, and will not restate those matters in this Order.

Washburn may now be dismissed as moot. Accordingly, the Court DISMISSES with prejudice Plaintiff's Third Amended Complaint as to Washburn.

On May 5, 2016, after obtaining an extension of time to file their supplemental materials, Defendants filed a Second Supplemental Memorandum (#327) in Support of their Motion for Summary Judgment together with a Notice (#328) of Lodging Ex Parte, In Camera Materials in which Defendants publicly stated it had lodged "with the Department of Justice's Classified Information Security Officer ("CISO") the classified declaration of Michael Steinbach" for secure storage and transmission to the Court. On May 26, 2016, Plaintiffs filed a Response (#329) to Defendants' Second Supplemental Memorandum in Support of their Motion for Summary Judgment.

On July 7, 2016, the Court issued the following Order (#330):

The Court makes this record to give notice to Plaintiffs that the Court has by separate Ex Parte Order filed with the Classified Information Security Officer directed Defendants to make a supplemental filing, ex parte and under seal if necessary, no later than August 1, 2016, regarding the materials referenced in Defendants' Notice (#328) of Lodging Ex Parte, In Camera Materials. After the Court considers that filing, the Court will determine whether the record is then sufficient for the Court to resolve the parties' pending cross-motions and will inform the parties accordingly.

On July 19, 2016, Defendants filed a Motion (#331) for Extension of Time to File Supplemental Submission. On July 25, 2016, Plaintiffs opposed Defendants' Motion and requested "further information for the public record about the subject matter of the supplemental filing that Defendants have been directed to submit, including the basis for making that filing ex parte and in camera." Pls.' Opp'n (#333) to Defs.' Mot. for Extension of Time to File Supplemental Materials. On August 3, 2016, the Court granted Defendants' Motion for Extension of Time and concluded it was "unable to provide any additional explanation on the record." Order (#334) (issued Aug. 3, 2016).

On August 29, 2016, Defendants filed a Notice (#335) of Lodging ex Parte, in Camera Materials in response to the Court's Order (#330).

Having reviewed and considered all of the material Defendants submitted in response to the Court's March 28, 2016, Opinion and Order (#321) and the Court's July 7, 2016, Order (#330), the Court is satisfied that the materials filed by Defendants sufficiently address the issues raised in the Court's Ex Parte Order filed with the CISO on July 7, 2016.

In addition, after a thorough review of the materials submitted with Defendants' Notice (#328) of Lodging Ex Parte, In Camera Materials filed in response to the Court's March 28, 2016, Opinion and Order (#321), the Court concludes Defendants have provided sufficient justifications for withholding additional information in response to each of the Plaintiffs' revised DHS TRIP inquiries.

Accordingly, based on the Court's Opinion and Order (#321) and this Order, the Court now GRANTS Defendants' Cross-Motions (#241, #242, #247, #248, #249, #250) for Partial Summary Judgment regarding individual Plaintiffs and DENIES Plaintiffs' individual Renewed Motions (#210, #212, #214, #216, #218, #220) for Partial Summary Judgment.

CASE-MANAGEMENT ORDER

Consistent with the Court's March 28, 2016, Order (#321), the Court directs the parties to submit a single, joint status report no later than October 20, 2016, with a proposed expedited briefing schedule for the Court to consider Defendants' argument that the revisions in the DHS TRIP procedures "effectively abrogate the Ninth Circuit's holdings that this Court has jurisdiction to continue to adjudicate Plaintiffs' remaining claims." Opinion and Order (#321) at 61-62; Latif, 2016 WL 1239925, at *20.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED this 6th day of October, 2016.
