

Expected Testimony of Clarence Raymond Beeson

I am a cashier at the Continental Restaurant at the Trailways Bus Terminal and have been instructed to serve everyone regardless of their race.

In July or August, 1962, I observed a policeman tell two negro men who had entered the restaurant and ordered cheeseburgers to leave the restaurant before the negroes could be served.

Clarence Raymond Beeson
Clarence Raymond Beeson