PROTECTIVE ORDER

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), this Court orders as follows:

1. The identity of any non-party claiming to be developmentally disabled and seeking Medicaid services shall remain confidential and shall only be used in this litigation.

Any court filings will refer to a non-party disabled person by the initials of her first and last name.

2. The Pre-Admission Screening agencies and Service Providers shall comply with the subpoenas issued by Plaintiffs' attorney, Robert H. Farley, Jr.; however no documents shall be produced which contain personally identifiable data relating to a developmentally disabled person seeking Medicaid services. If a document contains personally identifiable data, that identifiable data shall be redacted from the document.

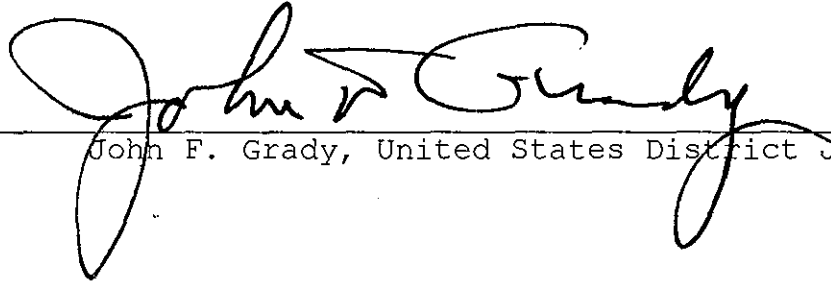

3. If any Pre-Admission Screening Agency or Service Provider needs additional time to comply with the subpoena, then said agency or provider shall notify Plaintiffs' counsel of the estimated time required to comply with the subpoena. If any Pre-Admission Screening agency or Service Provider seeks to be reimbursed for the expense associated with compliance with the subpoena, then prior to said production, such agency or provider shall furnish to Plaintiffs' counsel a statement of probable expense, and Plaintiffs' counsel then shall notify said agency or provider whether the production is still requested, and if so, that Plaintiffs' counsel agrees to pay a reasonable expense for production.

4. This Order is subject to modification for good cause shown.
