06/21/2012	83	ORDER. The Court met with the parties this afternoon on certain items of disputed discovery. After discussion with the parties, Plaintiff shall provide a privilege log indicating the privileged documents that it reviewed in reconstructing the financial damages it seeks in this case. It has thirty days in which to do so. Defendant shall review and provide, in a redacted form if necessary, the County's communications with non-attorneys in which the County policy was discussed. If the Defendant believes that there is a deliberative process privilege in both state and federal law that would prevent such disclosure, it has until June 27 to file a three page document with the court to that effect. Plaintiff has until July 5 to file a three page response. Defendant need not research the two backup tapes for documents as requested by the Plaintiff. Signed by Judge G Murray Snow on June 21, 2012.
