

1987 WL 13350

Only the Westlaw citation is currently available.
United States District Court,
District of Columbia.

JOHN DOE, et al., Plaintiffs,
v.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, et al., Defendants.
TWELVE JOHN DOES, et al., Plaintiffs,

v.

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA, et al., Defendants.
INMATES OF OCCOQUAN, et al., Plaintiffs,

v.

MARION BARRY, Mayor, et al., Defendants.

Civ. A. Nos. 79-1726, 80-2136 and 86-2128. | June 30, 1987.

Opinion

ORDER

JUNE L. GREEN, District Judge.

*1 Upon consideration of the Interim Report submitted by the Special Officer of the Court on June 19, 1987, and of the comments by the parties on the Interim Report, and of the matters raised at the hearing of June 30, 1987, it is by the Court this 30th day of June 1987,

ORDERED that defendants shall provide, within 10 days of the date of this order, a report concerning the effect of the Prison Overcrowding Emergency Act of 1987 on the problem of prison overcrowding. Such report shall include: (1) a listing of the 'rated design capacity' certified by the Department of Corrections for each facility under its control; (2) a listing of the actual population of each such facility; (3) a description of the actions that defendants are taking to implement the Act to the maximum possible extent; (4) a well-supported estimate of the number of inmates eligible for sentence reduction under the Act; and (5) an estimate of the population reduction that can be achieved within 90 days and within 180 days through application of the Act; it is further ORDERED that defendants shall continue their efforts to expedite the erection of the 100-bed facility discussed at page 3 of the Interim Report. Defendants shall submit a report to the Court within 10 days from the date of this order stating when the facility will be installed and operational. The report shall also state where the facility is to be located, and what measures defendants will take to insure the safety and well-being of the inmates confined there; it is further

ORDERED that defendants shall meet with counsel for plaintiffs concerning the renegotiation of Court-ordered population lids, at a convenient time and place to be fixed by the Special Officer of the Court; it is further

ORDERED that defendants shall expedite the promulgation of rules for the granting of good time pursuant to the Good Time Credits Act of 1987. Defendants shall submit a report to the Court within 10 days of the date of this order stating when such rules shall be promulgated; it is further ORDERED that defendants shall submit a report, to be received no later than July 27, 1987, stating whether defendants cannot revise their implementation plan for their operation of Saint Elizabeths Hospital, as submitted to Congress, or take other measures, so as to permit the incarceration of non-committable mentally ill inmates at Saint Elizabeths Hospital. See Response of Defendants to the Interim Report of the Special Officer of the Court at 5; it is further

ORDERED that defendants shall submit a report within 90 days from the date of this order containing an evaluation of the costs and benefits of a capital improvement plan to replace the dormitories at Central with new housing units pursuant to the recommendation of the April 1987 report of the National Institute of Corrections; it is further

ORDERED that John D. Fauntleroy, the Special Officer of the Court, shall submit a more detailed final report to the Court on or before July 20, 1987. The parties shall file comments on such final report on or before July 27, 1987; it is further

*2 ORDERED that a hearing will be held on July 30, 1987, at 10:00 a.m., in Courtroom 7, to consider further measures as may be appropriate to promote compliance with the Court's orders; it is further

ORDERED that defendants shall submit to the Court no later than July 10, 1987, a separate report indicating specifically the steps that have been taken to relieve the overcrowding at the Occoquan Facilities since the hearing of June 30, 1987, with special attention to Dormitories J-1 and J-2 in Occoquan II, and Dormitory 5 in Occoquan III, and the steps that are planned for the immediate future; and it is further ORDERED that the Court's order of December 22, 1986, is further stayed until July 30, 1987, or until further order of the Court.

