01/19/2016	431	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jorge L. Alonso: Plaintiff asks the Court to bifurcate for trial his individual claim from those of the putative class members because doing so will expedite resolution of the former and allow the parties to concentrate on the complex issues raised by the latter. Yet he also asserts that his individual claim and those of the putative class are "the same" (see Pl.'s Reply Supp. Mot. Bifurcate at 1–2), and thus evidence disclosed in class discovery, which is ongoing, is relevant to and will likely be introduced in the trial of his individual claim (see id. at 2). The Court fails to see how trying the same claim with the same evidence twice serves the purposes of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 42(b). See id. ("For convenience, to avoid prejudice, or to expedite and economize, the court may order a separate trial of one or more separate issues, claims, crossclaims, counterclaims, or third–party claims."). Accordingly, the Court denies plaintiff's motion to bifurcate 391 . Notice mailed by judge's staff (ntf,) (Entered: 01/19/2016)

04/18/2016	468	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Jorge L. Alonso: Christopher Everett moves to reassign Everett v. Baldwin, 13 C 4697, assigned to Judge Chang, to this Court as related to this case. Though both cases challenge the provision of medical care at one or more IDOC institutions, and thus involve "some of the same issues of fact" as required by Local Rule 40.4(a), half of the criteria of Local Rule 40.4(b) are not met. Because Everett has been pending for three years, Judge Chang has already devoted substantial time to and gained significant knowledge about the case, effort that would be wasted if the case were reassigned. Moreover, after significant discovery, this case is in the midst of class certification briefing while Everett is still in the class discovery process. Therefore, reassignment of Everett to this Court would substantially delay the proceedings in this case. Because reassigning Everett will not preserve judicial resources and would adversely impact the proceedings in this case, the Court denies Everett's motion to reassign 460 . 02/27/2018	643	MINUTE entry before the Honorable Daniel G. Martin: Status and motion hearing held. Parties reported on the progress of discovery. For the reasons stated in open court, the State Defendants' objection to producing updated hard copy documents from Illinois River and Hill Correctional Centers 625 is overruled. In its oral ruling, the Court misstated that "If the State Defendants wanted to argue that Plaintiffs needed to serve a Rule 34 request for updated documents from the Illinois River and Hill facilities, they should not have raised that argument in September 2017 in response to Plaintiffs counsels September 6, 2017 email and should not have agreed in October 2017 to produce those documents without a formal Rule 34 request for documents." This language is stricken from the oral ruling. The Court should have stated the following and this language is substituted in lieu thereof: "If the State Defendants wanted to argue that Plaintiffs needed to serve a Rule 34 request for updated documents from the Illinois River and Hill facilities, they should have raised that argument in September 2017 in response to Plaintiffs' counsel's September 6, 2017 email and should not have agreed in October 2017 to produce those documents without a formal Rule 34 request for documents." The State Defendants may file a brief in opposition to sanctions by 3/6/2018. By 3/29/2018, the State Defendants shall produce updated hard copy documents (fall 2015 forward) from Illinois River, Hill, and NRC. As to the remaining documents on Plaintiffs' updated listed, the State Defendants shall reproduce certain responsive documents with the proper identity of the facility by 3/7/2018. Plaintiffs advised that they received updated hard copy documents regarding the OHS Quarterly Meeting Reports. As to the Regional Health Services Coordinator Monthly Activity Report and Year-End Review Reports, Plaintiffs' counsel shall send a copy of these documents to the State Defendants to assist them in determining whether those documents are still in use under a different title. Counsel held a meet and confer session on 2/16/2018 regarding all remaining outstanding discovery and Plaintiffs' questions in paragraph 6 of their Eleventh Motion to Compel. Plaintiffs' counsel reported that some outstanding issues exist as to which the State Defendants have not responded and that Plaintiffs intend to file a motion to compel today as to a category of documents that date back to their Eleventh Motion to Compel. The State Defendants response brief to Plaintiffs' anticipated motion to compel is due by 3/2/2018. Defendant John Baldwin's reply brief in support of his Motion for Protective Order 622 is due by 3/6/2018.
