JAMES M. LEBLANC, ET AL.

MAGISTRATE JUDGE
ERIN WILDER-DOOMES

ADDENDUM TO SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

The parties to Ball v. LeBlanc, 13-cv-368, United States District Court for the Middle District of Louisiana (the "Court") enter into this Addendum to the Settlement Agreement executed on November 5, 2018 (Rec. Doc. 475-1), pursuant to which the Court conditionally dismissed the above-captioned matter on April 18, 2019 (Rec. Doc. 486).

The parties hereby agree that Defendants will not alter the size of the hole in the door separating the air-conditioned Guard's Pod from Tier C, which currently measures 27 inches by 34 inches. The first sentence of Section G of the Settlement Agreement, which requires Defendants to maintain a hole measuring no less than 26 inches by 27 inches, shall no longer have effect. In return, the Plaintiffs agree to forego the July 2019 opt-out period described in the third full paragraph of the fourth page of the Settlement Agreement. All other provisions of the Settlement Agreement shall retain full force and effect. The dispute resolution and termination provisions set forth in the Settlement Agreement shall govern any disputes arising out of the parties' compliance with the substantive provisions of this Addendum.

Within five days of the execution of this Addendum, the parties shall jointly file a copy of the Addendum in the record of this matter. The parties agree that this Addendum is enforceable in federal court and that dismissal of this case will be conditional upon Defendants' Substantial Compliance with the terms of both the Settlement Agreement and this Addendum. This Addendum may not be altered or amended, except in writing signed by all parties or their representatives, and shall be binding on all successors, assigns, employees, agents, and all others working on behalf of Plaintiffs and Defendants.
