07/08/1994	5	ORDER, that the court declines to sign the order to show cause. Even the complete record now before the court indicates that plttf has been given medical treatment in the state prison system including one M.R.I A federal court can only intervene in state prison medical matters where there is such a deficiency in treatment as to constitute cruel and unusal punishment in violation of the Eighth Amendment. Plttf will need to make such a showing in order to obtain any relief in this case. Plttf has not shown any basis for entering a temporary restraining order. As to the further course of the litigation, the court intends to have in August in accordance with the court's standard procedures. This means that the court will confer with defense counsel and with an attorney or other representative of the prisoner plttf. Since plttf does not have an attorney, and his wife has been in communication with the court, his wife will be invited to attend the conference. (signed by Chief Judge Thomas P. Griesa); Copies mailed (kg) (Entered: 07/11/1994)
