ORDER

00-C-421-C

In an order dated May 3, 2007, I approved the modified settlement agreement proposed by the parties. In issuing that order, I inadvertently failed to attach Exhibit B, which included this court's definition of "serious mental illness," a term that is the cornerstone of the new agreement. Because the definition comes from an attachment to the previous agreement, it is unnecessary to provide the parties with additional copies.

However, for future reference, I will attach Exhibit B to the copy of the modified agreement in the court's file.
