04/20/2011	9	MINUTE ORDER IN CHAMBERS by Judge Philip S. Gutierrez: PLEASE BE ADVISED that on the Court's own motion, a Status Conference is hereby set for Friday, April 22, 2011 at 9:00 am to discuss plaintiff's ex parte application (See doc. 6). (bm) (Entered: 04/20/2011)

04/22/2011	10	MINUTES OF STATUS CONFERENCE held before Judge Philip S. Gutierrez: Hearing held and counsel are present. The Court hears oral argument regarding Plaintiff's Ex Parte Application for a TRO and/or Order to Show Cause Re: Issuance of a Preliminary Injunction (Doc. 6). The matter is taken under submission. The Court will issue a ruling after full consideration of the submitted pleadings. Court Reporter: Miriam Baird. (rp) (Entered: 04/22/2011)
04/22/2011	11	MINUTES (IN CHAMBERS) ORDER by Judge Philip S. Gutierrez granting 6 Plaintiffs Application for a Temporary Restraining Order: Pending before the Court is Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application for a Temporary Restraining Order. The Court held a hearing, where both parties were present, on April 22, 2011. After considering the papers submitted in support of the Application and in opposition to the Application, the Court GRANTS the Application and ISSUES a TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER. Based on similar considerations, and after a careful analysis of the facts of this case, the Court finds that the balance of hardships tips in favor of the Plaintiffs. Moreover, the public interest is served by issuance of a TRO in that the City will still be able to lawfully seize and detain property, as opposed to unlawfully seizing and immediately destroying property. Although a bond is typically required upon issuance of a TRO in federal court, courts in the Ninth Circuit have dispensed with the requirement where there is little or no harm to the party enjoined and where plaintiffs are unable to afford to post such a bond. Like in Kincaid and Justin, the Court exercises its discretion to forego the bond requirement in light of the fact that Plaintiffs are homeless and that there is no real harm to the City in issuing this TRO. Pending a hearing on a preliminary injunction, Defendant City, its agents and employees, are hereby enjoined from doing any of the following: 1. Seizing property in Skid Row absent an objectively reasonable belief that it is abandoned, presents an immediate threat to public health or safety, or is evidence of a crime, or contraband; and 2. Absent an immediate threat to public health or safety, destruction of said seized property without maintaining it in a secure location for a period of less than 90 days. Defendant City, its agents and employees, is further directed to leave a notice in a prominent place for any property taken on the belief that it is abandoned, including advising where the property is being kept and when it may be claimed by the rightful owner. A hearing on the Order to Show Cause why a preliminary and/or permanent injunction should not issue is set for June 20, 2011 at 1:30 p.m. Any additional briefing by the Defendant is to be filed not later than May 16, 2011. Any responsive briefing by the Plaintiffs is to be filed no later than June 6, 2011. Based on and according to the foregoing, the Court GRANTS Plaintiffs' Ex Parte Application for a Temporary Restraining Order and Orders Defendant to Show Cause why Issuance of a Preliminary or Permanent Injunction is not appropriate in this case.
