11/15/2011	169	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Shira A. Scheindlin from Darius Charney dated 11/15/2011 re: I write pursuant to Rule I.D. of Your Honor's Individual Rules and Procedures to request a two-week extension of the deadline for Plaintiffs to submit both their opposition to Defendants' anticipated motion to exclude Plaintiffs' expert's testimony and their reply in further support of their own motion for class certification, both of which are currently due January 19, 2012. ENDORSEMENT: Request granted in part. Plaintiff's deadlines shall be extended by 14 days until February 2, 2012. Defendant's deadline to reply to plaintiff's Daubert opposition shall be also be extended 14 days, until February 16, 2012. Defendants have conveyed to the Court their reasons for requesting a four week extension, but those reasons are insufficient to justify further delay of this case. So Ordered. Because defendants will not have the opportunity for discovery on any factual claims made by the amici, I will rely only on the legal arguments, and not the facts, that they raise in their brief. 06/04/2012	209	ORDER: Plaintiffs' request to extend the briefing schedule for their proposed Daubert motion challenging the methodology and/or qualifications of defendants' expert is denied. At the May 27 conference, plaintiffs stated that they would seek to expedite the remaining discovery and proceed to trial at the earliest possible time. This case is now four years old. A two month extension of the anticipated Daubert motion will cause further delay. A Daubert motion is not required and counsel should give careful thought to the need for such a motion. While counsel may disagree with the substance of an expert's testimony, that is not the standard for disqualification. Such motions are often made reflexively and with little chance of success. Nonetheless, should plaintiffs determine that a Daubert motion is absolutely necessary, they must make it on the schedule ordered during the May 27 conference. (Signed by Judge Shira A. 02/21/2013	260	ORDER: At the January 31, 2013 conference, I reserved judgment as to whether the City would be compelled to produce records of unsubstantiated Internal Affairs Bureau ("IAB") and Office of Chief of Department ("OCD") complaints of suspicionless stops involving police officers who are expected to testify at the upcoming trial. I ordered the submission of the summary records for in camera review, to determine which allegations in fact involved suspicionless stops. The City submitted for in camera review only the twenty summary records that it found not to be complaints of suspicionless stops, or that it found to be unclear, as well as a summary of its conclusions regarding those records. Based on my review of these twenty complaint records, I conclude that the following complaints sufficiently allege suspicionless stops by officers who are expected to testify: 08-15158, 08-04119, 09-02441, 09-52860, 11-06568, 05-09344, 09-36862, 07-09652, 08-53470, 09-14207, and 09-15511. For each of these complaints, the City is ordered to locate, redact, and produce the associated investigative file. The City is ordered to complete production of the eleven files it has already begun to locate by March 4, 2013, and to complete production of the eleven files listed above by March 8, 2013. 02/28/2013	262	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Shira A. Scheindlin from Suzanna Rublicker dated 2/27/2013 re: Therefore, defendants ask that the Court permit the City to only produce the Command Conditions Reports for the 43rd, 73rd, 107th, and the 28th Precincts for February 2012. While defendants are making best efforts to comply with this last minute request for documents, so that the deposition of the 30(b)(6) witness regarding Quest for Excellence can proceed next week as ordered by the Court, we propose that we provide one command conditions report to plaintiffs so that the deposition can occur in compliance with this Court's order. Given that the Court has allotted 2 hours for the deposition, a sample of one command conditions report should allow plaintiffs an opportunity to ask questions of the witness. ENDORSEMENT: The City's request is Granted in part as follows: The City is ordered to produce Command Condition Reports for the 43rd, 73rd, 107th and 28th Precincts Patrol Unit B and Anti-Crime Units for the month of February 2012, as early as possible, and no later than March 1, 2013. 04/29/2013	275	ORDER: On April 24, 2013, the City of New York moved to exclude the testimony of plaintiffs' police practices expert, Lou Reiter. Under the Federal Rules of Evidence and related case law, the use of expert testimony must be "carefully circumscribed to assure that the expert does not usurp either the role of the trial judge in instructing the jury as to the applicable law or the role of the [trier of fact] in applying that law to the facts before it."... I have carefully reviewed Mr. Reiter's testimony. Large portions of the testimony consisted of legal conclusions, expert opinions lacking a sufficient foundation, non-expert observations regarding lay matters, and summaries of the trial testimony and exhibits. Such summaries are appropriate in the parties' summations, but may not be offered under the guise of expert opinion. Certain portions of Mr. Reiter's testimony, including his opinions regarding the NYPD's procedures for administrative investigations, rested on a reliable foundation and are admissible. But other portions, including Mr. Reiter's observations concerning general and best practices for recording stop and frisk activity, did not rest on a reliable foundation and are inadmissible. In addition, while Mr. Reiter established a general expertise regarding use-of-force reporting, he did not establish a sufficient foundation for his opinions regarding the NYPD's use-of-force reporting in relation to stop and frisk activity the only use-of-force reporting relevant to this case. As a result, his testimony regarding use-of-force reporting must be excluded. Based on these conclusions, all but the following portions of Mr. Reiter's testimony on direct and redirect examination are excluded: Tr. 4808: 13-4824:9, 4826:19-4831:17 (expert qualifications); 4834:1-4835:20, 4845:8-4846:1 (first level supervisors and operational policy); 4865:22-4866:5 (memo book deficiencies as choice rather than oversight); 4877:11-4878:6 (public pronouncements as notice); 4878:12-4893:21 (administrative investigations); 4956:23-4957:17 (quotas); 4963:19-4964:12 (callbacks). The City is directed to identify any portions of Mr. Reiter's cross-examination that it wishes to exclude based on the reasoning of this Order. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Shira A. 07/12/2013	369	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Shira A. Scheindlin, from Heidi Grossman, dated 7/12/2013, re: in response to the Court's email request of the parties on June 27, 2013, to explain what, if any effect that the recent passage by the New York City Council of Int. No. 1079, a bill that would create an independent inspector general for the NYPD, would have on the parties' remedies arguments. Int. No. 1079 passed amid the public debate surrounding NYPD's stop, question and frisk practices. Defendants submit that Int. No. 1079, should it become effective, illustrates the confusion, redundancy and unwieldiness that defendants argued in their previous submissions would result and potentially compromise the public safety if NYPD is subjected to further oversight, including a federal monitor. For all of the above reasons, the Court should not appoint a monitor. ENDORSEMENT: The Clerk of Court is directed to docket the following two letters from the parties in this case, both dated July 10, 2013. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 7/12/2013) (ja) (Entered: 07/12/2013)
07/12/2013	370	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Shira A. Scheindlin, from Sunita Patel, dated 7/10/2013, re: Plaintiffs write in response to the Court's request for letters from

		the parties explaining the effect, if any, of New York City Council bill Int. No. 1079's creation of an inspector general ("IG") for the New York Police Department ("NYPD") on the remedies sought in this action. In sum, the roles of the IG, a court-appointed monitor, and the Joint Remedial Process are distinct and would each serve as complementary and necessary pieces of a comprehensive reform process and independent oversight and accountability system for the NYPD. In the future, similar to the way DOJ consent decrees provide, when the IG and court monitor are hired or appointed, there may be a need to specify mechanisms for information-sharing and coordination of efforts... At that time, Plaintiffs can provide the Court with a sample order with such provisions after consulting with the court monitor, Defendants and the IG. ENDORSEMENT: The Clerk of the Court is directed to docket this letter. So Ordered. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 7/12/2013) (ja) (Entered: 07/12/2013)

08/12/2013	373	OPINION AND ORDER: #103471 For the foregoing reasons, the City is liable for the violation of plaintiffs' Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment rights. In a separate opinion, I will order remedies, including immediate changes to the NYPD's policies, a joint-remedial process to consider further reforms, and the appointment of an independent monitor to oversee compliance with the remedies ordered in this case. I conclude with a particularly apt quote: "The idea of universal suspicion without individual evidence is what Americans find abhorrent and what black men in America must constantly fight. It is pervasive in policing policies like stop-and-frisk, and... neighborhood watch – regardless of the collateral damage done to the majority of innocents. It's like burning down a house to rid it of mice." (See Order). (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 8/12/2013) (ja) Modified on 8/14/2013 (ca). (Entered: 08/12/2013)

We submit that permitting Mr. Lino to testify about this stop is consistent with the Court's previous ruling... ENDORSEMENT: The Clerk of the Court is directed to docket this letter. SO ORDERED. 08/28/2013	381	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Shira A. Scheindlin from Darius Charney dated 8/28/2013 re: On behalf of Plaintiffs in the above-captioned action, I write to request that we be given until Friday, September 6, 2013, to respond to Defendants' request for a stay of the relief ordered in the Court's August 12, 2013 Remedies Opinion and Order. ENDORSEMENT: Plaintiffs' request is hereby granted. Plaintiffs have until September 6, 2013 to respond to the City's stay request. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 8/28/2013) (rsh) (Entered: 08/28/2013)
08/29/2013	382	ORDER: On August 27, 2013, fifteen days after this Court issued the Remedies Opinion in Floyd and Ligon, the City of New York submitted to this Court a letter motion requesting a stay of the Opinion pending appeal. Plaintiffs in Floyd and Ligon promptly requested until September 6, 2013 to submit letters in opposition to the City's motion. The City opposed plaintiffs' requests, arguing that plaintiffs should be granted no more than three days to draft an opposition letter, because this is the time normally allotted for responses to pre-motion letters under this Court's Individual Rules. The City's stay request is a motion, not a pre-motion letter, and the City had fifteen days to prepare its motion. Plaintiffs will have ten days, including the Labor Day weekend, to prepare their opposition letter. Thus, plaintiffs' opposition will be due by September 6, 2013. The City's reply will be due by September 12, 2013, pursuant to the City's request. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 8/29/2013) (rsh) (Entered: 08/29/2013)
09/03/2013	383	NOTICE OF APPEARANCE by Chauniqua Danielle Young on behalf of Lalit Clarkson, Deon Dennis, David Floyd, David Ourlicht. (Young, Chauniqua) (Entered: 09/03/2013)
09/04/2013	384	SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER: This Order supplements the Remedies Opinion of August 12, 2013, which ordered the parties to engage in a community-based remedial process (the "Joint Remedial Process") to develop sustainable reforms to the stop and frisk practices of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"). The Opinion stated that the Joint Remedial Process would be guided by a Facilitator to be named by the Court. I am now appointing Nicholas Turner, President and Director of the VERA Institute of Justice, as the Facilitator. After previously working at VERA for nine years, Mr. Turner was recently named as the Institute's fifth President... Based in New York City, the VERA Institute is widely recognized for its use of rigorous testing and broad-based collaboration to help governments plan, implement, and evaluate improvements to the justice system... VERA has a long history of working to improve public safety by strengthening the ties between police and the community. In the early 1980s, VERA partnered with the NYPD to develop the Community Patrol Officer Program, one of the first community policing programs in the country. A 1999 study of two police precincts in the South Bronx examined approaches to respectful and effective policing in minority communities. SO ORDERED. (See Order). (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 9/4/2013) (ja) Modified on 9/5/2013 (ja). (Entered: 09/04/2013)

09/06/2013	386	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Shira A. Scheindlin, from Steven R. Newmark and John Siegal, dated 9/6/2013, re: New York City Public Advocate Bill de Blasio (the "Public Advocate") requests leave to submit this letter brief as amicus curiae in opposition to the Defendant City of New York's request for a stay pending appeal of the Court's Remedies Opinion and Order, dated August 12, 2013 (the "Remedies Order", Floyd, ECF No. 372, Ligon, ECF No. 120), issued in conjunction with the Court's Liability Opinion in Floyd on the same date... For the foregoing reasons, on behalf of the Public Advocate for the City of New York, we respectfully request that the Court deny the City's request for a stay of the Remedies Order pending appeal. ENDORSEMENT: The Clerk of the Court is directed to docket this amicus letter brief. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 9/6/2013) (ja) Modified on 9/10/2013 (ja). Pending before the Court is a motion filed by Appellants City of New York et al. seeking a stay of the District Court's August 12, 2013 remedial order and preliminary injunction ("Remedies Opinion"). It is hereby ORDERED that the District Courts January 8, 2013 "Opinion and Order," as well as the August 12, 2013 "Liability Opinion" and "Remedies Opinion," each of which may or will have the effect of causing actions to be taken by defendants or designees of the District Court, or causing restraints against actions that otherwise would be taken by defendants, are STAYED

		pending the disposition of these appeals. The appeal by defendants in both (consolidated) actions shall continue in the normal course, under the following schedule: Defendants shall perfect their appeals by January 24, 2014. Plaintiffs shall file by February 28, 2014. Defendants shall reply by March 14, 2014. Oral argument shall be heard on a date after March 14, 2014, to be set by the Court in due course. The cause is REMANDED to the District Court for the sole purpose of implementation of this Order, and the mandate shall otherwise remain with this Court until the completion of the appeals process. Upon review of the record in these cases, we conclude that the District Judge ran afoul of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, Canon 2 ("A judge should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all activities."); see also Canon 3(C)(1) ("A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned...."), and that the appearance of partiality surrounding this litigation was compromised by the District Judge's improper application of the Court's "related case rule," see Transfer of Related Cases, S.D.N.Y. &amp; E.D.N.Y. Local Rule 13(a), and by a series of media interviews and public statements purporting to respond publicly to criticism of the District Court. Accordingly, we conclude that, in the interest, and appearance, of fair and impartial administration of justice, UPON REMAND, these cases shall be assigned to a different District Judge, chosen randomly under the established practices of the District Court for the Southern District of New York. This newly-designated District Judge shall implement this Court's mandate staying all proceedings and otherwise await further action by the Court of Appeals on the merits of the ongoing appeals. In taking these actions, we intimate no view on the substance or merits of the pending appeals, which have yet to be fully briefed and argued. The mandate shall ISSUE FORTHWITH for the sole purpose of implementation of this Order and shall otherwise remain in this Court. In the interest of judicial economy, any question, application, or further appeal regarding the scope of this Order or its implementation shall be directed to this panel, which will hear the case on the merits in due course. 11/01/2013		NOTICE OF CASE REASSIGNMENT to Judge Analisa Torres. Judge John G. Koeltl is no longer assigned to the case. (sjo) (Entered: 11/01/2013)
11/13/2013	419	PER CURIAM OPINION of USCA (Certified Copy) as to 379 Notice of Appeal, filed by The City of New York, Michael Bloomberg, Raymond Kelly. USCA Case Number 13-3088; 13-3123. These cases, motions of which were argued in tandem and decided on October 31, 2013, and which concern the so-called "stop-and-frisk" policies of the New York City Police Department, have, quite apart from the underlying merits, raised a number of unusual procedural issues. In a separate opinion published contemporaneously with this one, we explain the basis of our prior, brief order reassigning these cases from Judge Shira A. Scheindlin to a new district judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, to be chosen randomly. In this opinion, we address the unprecedented motion filed by Judge Scheindlin herself, through counsel, to appear and seek reconsideration of our order of reassignment. The motion, submitted substantially in the form of a brief in favor of reconsideration, presents the threshold question whether, in the circumstances presented, a district judge may participate as a party, as an intervenor, or as an amicus curiae in an appeal of her decisions. For the reasons set forth below, we DENY Judge Scheindlin's motion to appear in this Court in support of retaining authority over these cases. Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk USCA for the Second Circuit. Certified: 11/13/2013. (nd) (Entered: 11/14/2013)
11/13/2013	420	OPINION of USCA (Certified Copy) as to 379 Notice of Appeal, filed by The City of New York, Michael Bloomberg, Raymond Kelly. USCA Case Number 13-3088; 13-3123. This opinion explains the basis for our order of October 31, 2013, directing the reassignment of these cases to a randomly selected district judge and supersedes that order. To reiterate, we have made no findings that Judge Scheindlin has engaged in judicial misconduct. We conclude only that, based on her conduct at the December 21, 2007 hearing and in giving the interviews to the news media in May 2013, Judge Scheindlin's appearance of impartiality may reasonably be questioned within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 455 and that "reassignment is advisable to preserve the appearance of justice." For the foregoing reasons, we DENY the motions of appellant City of New York, seeking to modify the Court's stay order of October 31, 2013 to include vacatur of the District Courts February 14, 2013 order in Ligon v. City of New York, 925 F. Supp. 2d 478 (S.D.N.Y. 2013), and August 12, 2013 orders in Floyd v. City of New York, --- F. Supp. 2d ----, No. 08-cv-1034, 2013 WL 4046209 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 12, 2013); --- F. 07/30/2014	465	OPINION AND ORDER re: (436 in 1:08-cv-01034-AT-HBP) MOTION to Intervene. filed by Lieutenants Benevolent Association of the City of New York, Inc., NYPD Captains Endowment Association, Detectives' Endowment Association, Inc., Patrolmen's Benevolent Association of the City of New York, Inc., (171 in 1:12-cv-02274-AT-HBP) MOTION to Intervene filed by Lieutenants Benevolent Association of the City of New York, Inc., NYPD Captains Endowment Association, Detectives' Endowment Association, Inc., Patrolmen's Benevolent Association of the City of New York, Inc., (441 in 1:08-cv-01034-AT-HBP) SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION to Intervene Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24 filed by Sergeants Benevolent Association. The Unions' motions to intervene are DENIED for three reasons: (1) the motions are untimely; (2) the Unions have no significant protectable interests relating to the subject of the litigation that would warrant intervention; and (3) even if their alleged interests were cognizable, the Unions lack standing to vindicate those interests on appeal. The parties' motion for an order modifying the Remedial Order is GRANTED. The modification shall be set forth in a separate order to be issued forthwith. The Unions' request to participate in the settlement of Floyd and Ligon is, therefore, DENIED as moot. The Unions' request to

		participate in the remedial phase of Floyd is also DENIED as moot because the Remedial Order already offers "police organizations" the opportunity to participate in the development of reforms to NYPD stop-and-frisk policies and procedures through the "Joint Remedial Process." To the extent the Unions request to participate in the remedial phase of Ligon, that request is DENIED for the same reasons the Court denies their motion to intervene for the purpose of appealing the Remedial Order. Having resolved the motions to intervene, and having approved the terms of the parties' proposed resolution of the City's appeals, the Court has continuing jurisdiction only "insofar as is necessary to effectuate a settlement." Ligon, 743 F.3d at 365. Accordingly, by August 6, 2014, the City shall submit a letter to the Court indicating the status of its pending appeals. This Court shall take no further action unrelated to effectuating the parties' settlement unless and until the Court of Appeals dissolves the stay or otherwise returns jurisdiction to the District Court. The Clerk of Court shall terminate the motions at ECF Nos. 436 and 441 in Floyd and ECF No. 171 in Ligon. (Signed by Judge Analisa Torres on 7/30/2014) (tro) (Entered: 07/30/2014)
07/30/2014	466	ORDER MODIFYING REMEDIAL ORDER terminating 456 Motion to Amend/Correct 372 Memorandum &amp; Opinion. For the reasons stated in an Opinion and Order of even date, and pursuant to the directive of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit to "effectuate a settlement," Mandate and Opinion, (Feb. 21, 2014), Floyd, ECF No. 426; Ligon, ECF No. 166, IT IS ORDERED that paragraph 12 on page 13 of the Remedial Order, Floyd, ECF No. 372; Ligon, ECF No. 120, is deleted and the following is substituted in its place: 12. a. The Monitor's position will come to an end in Floyd no sooner than three years after the Court's entry of the final order approving the Immediate Reforms to be developed in Floyd and if and only if the City can show by a preponderance of the evidence at that time that it has achieved substantial compliance with all of the Immediate and Joint Process Reforms to be approved and so-ordered by the Court in Floyd. If the City fails to make such showing, the Monitor's position will continue until such time as the City can make the required showing of substantial compliance. b. The Monitor's position with respect to the preliminary injunctive relief in Ligon will come to an end no sooner than three years after the Court's entry of the final order approving the preliminary injunctive relief set forth in Section III of this Order, entitled "Remedies in Ligon" (the "Ligon Preliminary Injunctive Relief") and if and only if the City can show by a preponderance of the evidence at that time that it has achieved substantial compliance with all of the Ligon Preliminary Injunctive Relief. If the City fails to make such showing, the Monitor's position will continue until such time as the City can make the required showing of substantial compliance. c. "Substantial compliance" in Floyd shall be defined as compliance with all material aspects of the Immediate and Joint Process Reforms to be approved and so-ordered by the Court. "Substantial compliance" in Ligon shall be defined as compliance with all material aspects of the Ligon Preliminary Injunctive Relief. In either case, noncompliance with mere technicalities, or temporary failure to comply during a period of otherwise sustained compliance will not constitute a failure of substantial compliance. However, temporary compliance during a period of otherwise sustained non-compliance shall not constitute substantial compliance. d. Substantial compliance shall be measured using the milestones to be set by the Monitor pursuant to paragraph 5 above. The Clerk of Court shall terminate the motions at ECF No. 456 in Floyd and ECF No. 188 in Ligon. (Signed by Judge Analisa Torres on 7/30/2014) (tro) (Entered: 07/30/2014)

USCA Case Number 13-3088-cv; 14-2829-cv. For the reasons set forth in this opinion, Judge Torres's July 30, 2014 decision is AFFIRMED as being an appropriate exercise of her discretion, the police unions' motions to intervene in the appeals are DENIED, the City's motion for voluntary dismissal of the appeals with prejudice is GRANTED, and the causes are REMANDED for such further proceedings before Judge Torres as may be appropriate in the circumstances. The mandate shall issue seven days from the date of the filing of this opinion. Nothing that we have written here, or that the parties have suggested, should foreclose any reliance by the unions on collective bargaining rights afforded to them under the Labor Management Relations Act and state and local law. Moreover, in view of the possible relevance of the unions perspectives in any ongoing District Court proceedings, nothing in this opinion should be construed to inhibit the District Court from considering the interests of the unions, either as amici curiae , or on such other terms as the District Court may deem appropriate. For the reasons set forth in this opinion, Judge Torres's July 30, 2014 decision is AFFIRMED as being an appropriate exercise of her discretion, the police unions' motions to intervene in the appeals are DENIED, the City's motion for voluntary dismissal of the appeals with prejudice is GRANTED, and the causes are REMANDED for such further proceedings before Judge Torres as may be appropriate in the circumstances. The mandate shall issue seven days from the date of the filing of this opinion. Nothing that we have written here, or that the parties have suggested, should foreclose any reliance by the unions on collective bargaining rights afforded to them under the Labor Management Relations Act and state and local law. Moreover, in view of the possible relevance of the unions perspectives in any ongoing District Court proceedings, nothing in this opinion should be construed to inhibit the District Court from considering the interests of the unions, either as amici curiae , or on such other terms as the District Court may deem appropriate. 11/10/2014	473	ORDER APPOINTING FACILITATOR: This Order supplements the Remedies Opinion of August 12, 2013, which directed the parties to engage in a community–based remedial process (the "Joint Remedial Process") to develop sustainable reforms to the stop–and–frisk practices of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"). By Supplemental Order dated September 4, 2013, the Court appointed Nicholas Turner as Facilitator to guide the Joint Remedial Process. Due to professional obligations that have arisen since his appointment, Mr. Turner has withdrawn as Facilitator. The Court now appoints as Facilitator the Honorable Ariel E. Belen, a retired Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Appellate Division, Second Department, currently serving as a neutral mediator and arbitrator at JAMS, an alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") provider. Justice Belen, a graduate of Cornell Law School, began his legal career as a public defender with the Legal Aid Society of New York (1981–1990). At Legal Aid, he represented indigent criminal defendants, frequently participating in suppression hearings concerning, among other issues, stop–and–frisk violations. Later, at the City of New York Law Department, he worked as an Assistant Corporation Counsel (1990–1993), Deputy Chief of the Brooklyn Tort Division (1993–1994), and Chief of the Bronx Borough Office (1994), representing police officers sued for alleged civil rights violations, unlawful detentions, and the use of excessive force. Beginning in 1995, Justice Belen served in Kings County as a New York State Supreme Court Justice in various capacities, including in the trial court, at the Appellate Term, and as Administrative Judge of the Civil Term. Justice Belen was appointed to the Appellate Division, Second Department in 2008. In 2012, he joined JAMS. Justice Belen chairs the ADR Committee of the New York County Lawyers' Association and is a Member of the Executive Advisory Committee of the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution Panel of Distinguished Neutrals. 03/19/2015	498	ORDER: By letter dated March 18, 2015, the City suggests a way for all five police unions to participate in the remedial process now. Under the City's approach, the City will share proposals with the unions before providing them to the Monitor and the Plaintiffs. The unions may then offer their comments, which the City will convey to the Monitor. The City will continue to confer with the unions about substantial revisions proposed by the Monitor and the Plaintiffs.1 This approach affords the unions "a practical opportunity" to inform the Monitor of their viewpoints before the Monitor reaches conclusions and submits Final Recommendations to the Court. Accordingly, the unions' request is GRANTED to the extent that the Court invites the unions to participate in the manner described above.
