06/12/2012	20	MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER: #101911 This putative class action challenges the New York City Police Department's implementation of Operation Clean Halls, a program pursuant to which police officers patrol inside and around thousands of private residential apartment buildings throughout New York City. Plaintiffs allege that they and their minor children have been unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, and/or arrested in or around their homes or their family members' homes. The parties' first discovery dispute involves defendants' request for the unsealing of records relating to any prior arrests of plaintiffs. Defendants have no legitimate reason to examine paperwork from an old arrest for possession of drugs or disorderly conduct that terminated in a plaintiff's favor and was sealed pursuant to important state privacy law. When it can, the federal interest in broad discovery should accommodate this New York privilege. Defendants must be provided access to prior arrest records and paperwork only for charges of trespass or related crimes for the past ten years. Plaintiffs should also disclose to defendants the length of time that they were detained and incarcerated as a result of any prior arrests and any emotional or physical injuries that they suffered as a result of those arrests. This disclosure may be made in a sworn affidavit, but does not require the unsealing of arrest records. If, despite this guidance, the parties still disagree about the unsealing of particular arrest files, I will adjudicate the disputes on a case-by-case basis. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 6/12/2012) (rjm) Modified on 6/13/2012 (jab). (Entered: 06/12/2012)

02/11/2013	104	OPINION AND ORDER #102902 re: 67 MOTION to Certify Class. filed by Kieron Johnson, Letitia Ledan, Abdullah Turner, Fawn Bracy, Jacqueline Yates, Jaenean Ligon, Charles Bradley, Roshea Johnson, Fernando Moronta, Jovan Jefferson, A.O. Because plaintiffs have satisfied the requirements of Rule 23, their motion for class certification solely for the purpose of preliminary injunctive relief is granted. The Clerk of the Court is directed to close this motion [Docket Entry # 67]. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 2/11/2013). No Appearance Sheet Needed – ECF will send Opinion automatically to all attorneys. (pl) Modified on 2/11/2013 (pl). Modified on 2/14/2013 (rsh). (Entered: 02/11/2013)
02/14/2013	105	AMENDED OPINION & ORDER #102768: This case, filed in 2012, is one of three cases currently before this Court challenging aspects of the New York City Police Department's "stop and frisk" practices. Of the three cases, this case is the most narrow. It deals only with stops made by the police on suspicion of trespass outside of certain privately-owned buildings in the Bronx. But the legal issues raised by this case have roots that stretch back decades. For the reasons explained herein, plaintiffs' motion is granted, although the full extent of the relief has not yet been determined. No action is required by the Clerk of the Court, because plaintiffs' motion has already been closed. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 2/14/2013) (ja) Modified on

02/14/2013	106	ORDER re 105 Amended Opinion & Order: Since the publication of the January 8, 2013 Opinion and Order in Ligon v. City of New York, three errors in the Opinion have come to light as set forth herein. None of these errors alters the holding of the January 8 Opinion or any material aspect of the Opinion's preliminary injunction analysis. Nevertheless, in order to correct these errors, I am today issuing an Amended Opinion and Order. The only changes are those noted herein, and the deletion of unnecessary material in the Conclusion on page 150. The Amended Opinion is now the accurate version for all purposes. The Clerk is directed to docket this Order and the Amended Opinion and Order. SO ORDERED. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 2/14/2013) (ja) (Entered: 02/14/2013)

Scheindlin, from Alexis Karteron, dated 7/2/2013, re: request a pre-motion conference concerning a motion for an extension of time to serve Johnny Blasini, a retired NYPD officer who was named as a defendant in the Complaint in this matter. Although the 120-day period for service under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4(m) has expired, this Court may extend the time for service. 08/29/2013	127	ORDER: On August 27, 2013, fifteen days after this Court issued the Remedies Opinion in Floyd and Ligon, the City of New York submitted to this Court a letter motion requesting a stay of the Opinion pending appeal. Plaintiffs in Floyd and Ligon promptly requested until September 6, 2013 to submit letters in opposition to the City's motion. The City opposed plaintiffs' requests, arguing that plaintiffs should be granted no more than three days to draft an opposition letter, because this is the time normally allotted for responses to pre-motion letters under this Court's Individual Rules. The City's stay request is a motion, not a pre-motion letter, and the City had fifteen days to prepare its motion. Plaintiffs will have ten days, including the Labor Day weekend, to prepare their opposition letter. Thus, plaintiffs' opposition will be due by September 6, 2013. The City's reply will be due by September 12, 2013, pursuant to the City's request. (Signed by Judge Shira A. Scheindlin on 8/29/2013) (rsh) (Entered: 08/29/2013)
09/04/2013	128	SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER: This Order supplements the Remedies Opinion of August 12, 2013, which ordered the parties to engage in a community-based remedial process (the "Joint Remedial Process") to develop sustainable reforms to the stop and frisk practices of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"). The Opinion stated that the Joint Remedial Process would be guided by a Facilitator to be named by the Court. I am now appointing Nicholas Turner, President and Director of the VERA Institute of Justice, as the Facilitator. After previously working at VERA for nine years, Mr. Turner was recently named as the Institute's fifth President... Based in New York City, the VERA Institute is widely recognized for its use of rigorous testing and broad-based collaboration to help governments plan, implement, and evaluate improvements to the justice system... VERA has a long history of working to improve public safety by strengthening the ties between police and the community. In the early 1980s, VERA partnered with the NYPD to develop the Community Patrol Officer Program, one of the first community policing programs in the country. A 1999 study of two police precincts in the South Bronx examined approaches to respectful and effective policing in minority communities. SO ORDERED. (See Order). (Signed by Judge Shira A. Kelly, Kieron Ramdeen, Miguel Santiago, City of New York, Joseph Koch, Johnny Blasini, Joseph Bermudez, John Does 1-12 USCA Case Number 13-3123. Pending before the Court is a motion filed by Appellants City of New York et al. seeking a stay of the District Court's August 12, 2013 remedial order and preliminary injunction ("Remedies Opinion"). It is hereby ORDERED that the

		District Courts January 8, 2013 "Opinion and Order," as well as the August 12, 2013 "Liability Opinion" and "Remedies Opinion," each of which may or will have the effect of causing actions to be taken by defendants or designees of the District Court, or causing restraints against actions that otherwise would be taken by defendants, are STAYED pending the disposition of these appeals. The appeal by defendants in both (consolidated) actions shall continue in the normal course, under the following schedule: Defendants shall perfect their appeals by January 24, 2014. Plaintiffs shall file by February 28, 2014. Defendants shall reply by March 14, 2014. Oral argument shall be heard on a date after March 14, 2014, to be set by the Court in due course. The cause is REMANDED to the District Court for the sole purpose of implementation of this Order, and the mandate shall otherwise remain with this Court until the completion of the appeals process. Upon review of the record in these cases, we conclude that the District Judge ran afoul of the Code of Conduct for United States Judges, Canon 2 ("A judge should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all activities."); see also Canon 3(C)(1) ("A judge shall disqualify himself or herself in a proceeding in which the judge's impartiality might reasonably be questioned..."), and that the appearance of partiality surrounding this litigation was compromised by the District Judge's improper application of the Court's "related case rule," see Transfer of Related Cases, S.D.N.Y. & E.D.N.Y. Local Rule 13(a), and by a series of media interviews and public statements purporting to respond publicly to criticism of the District Court. Accordingly, we conclude that, in the interest, and appearance, of fair and impartial administration of justice, UPON REMAND, these cases shall be assigned to a different District Judge, chosen randomly under the established practices of the District Court for the Southern District of New York. This newly-designated District Judge shall implement this Court's mandate staying all proceedings and otherwise await further action by the Court of Appeals on the merits of the ongoing appeals. In taking these actions, we intimate no view on the substance or merits of the pending appeals, which have yet to be fully briefed and argued. The mandate shall ISSUE FORTHWITH for the sole purpose of implementation of this Order and shall otherwise remain in this Court. In the interest of judicial economy, any question, application, or further appeal regarding the scope of this Order or its implementation shall be directed to this panel, which will hear the case on the merits in due course. 11/01/2013		NOTICE OF CASE REASSIGNMENT to Judge Analisa Torres. Judge John G. Koeltl is no longer assigned to the case. (sjo) (Entered: 11/01/2013)
11/13/2013	158	PER CURIAM OPINION of USCA (Certified Copy) as to 123 Notice of Appeal, filed by Gregory Lomangino, Raymond W. Kelly, Kieron Ramdeen, Miguel Santiago, City of New York, Joseph Koch, Johnny Blasini, Joseph Bermudez, John Does 1-12. USCA Case Number 13-3088; 13-3123. These cases, motions of which were argued in tandem and decided on October 31, 2013, and which concern the so-called "stop-and-frisk" policies of the New York City Police Department, have, quite apart from the underlying merits, raised a number of unusual procedural issues. In a separate opinion published contemporaneously with this one, we explain the basis of our prior, brief order reassigning these cases from Judge Shira A. Scheindlin to a new district judge of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, to be chosen randomly. In this opinion, we address the unprecedented motion filed by Judge Scheindlin herself, through counsel, to appear and seek reconsideration of our order of reassignment. The motion, submitted substantially in the form of a brief in favor of reconsideration, presents the threshold question whether, in the circumstances presented, a district judge may participate as a party, as an intervenor, or as an amicus curiae in an appeal of her decisions. For the reasons set forth below, we DENY Judge Scheindlin's motion to appear in this Court in support of retaining authority over these cases. Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk USCA for the Second Circuit. Certified: 11/13/2013. (nd) (Entered: 11/14/2013)
11/13/2013	159	OPINION of USCA (Certified Copy) as to 123 Notice of Appeal, filed by Gregory Lomangino, Raymond W. Kelly, Kieron Ramdeen, Miguel Santiago, City of New York, Joseph Koch, Johnny Blasini, Joseph Bermudez, John Does 1-12. USCA Case Number 13-3088; 13-3123. This opinion explains the basis for our order of October 31, 2013, directing the reassignment of these cases to a randomly selected district judge and supersedes that order. To reiterate, we have made no findings that Judge Scheindlin has engaged in judicial misconduct. We conclude only that, based on her conduct at the December 21, 2007 hearing and in giving the interviews to the news media in May 2013, Judge Scheindlin's appearance of impartiality may reasonably be questioned within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 455 and that "reassignment is advisable to preserve the appearance of justice." Corrected Mandate 3, Oct. 31, 2013, ECF No. 157. In a letter dated November 20, 2013, Plaintiffs state, "[c]ounsel for the defendants indicated this week, without explanation, that they do not agree that discovery in this case is stayed. If Your Honor does not believe that discovery is stayed by the Second Circuit's mandate, the plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court extend the current discovery deadline by 60 days and provide the parties with guidance on the appropriate method of raising discovery disputes." Kelly, Kieron Ramdeen, Miguel Santiago, City of New York, Joseph Koch, Johnny Blasini, Joseph Bermudez, John Does 1–12 USCA Case Number 13–3123. For the foregoing reasons, we DENY the motions of appellant City of New York, seeking to modify the Court's stay order of October 31, 2013 to include vacatur of the District Courts February 14, 2013 order in Ligon v. City of New York , 925 F. Supp. 2d 478 (S.D.N.Y. 2013), and August 12, 2013 orders in Floyd v. City of New York , --- F. Supp. 2d ----, No. 08–cv–1034, 2013 WL 4046209 (S.D.N.Y. We also DENY the November 13, 2013 motions by counsel for Judge Scheindlin to appear in order to oppose the City's motions for modification, for the reasons stated in In re Motion of District Judge , --- F.3d ----, Nos. 13–3123, 13–3088 (2d Cir. Nov. 13, 2013), and, because in any event, they are moot. Catherine O'Hagan Wolfe, Clerk USCA for the Second Circuit. Certified: 11/22/2013. (nd) (Entered: 11/22/2013)

11/22/2013	164	ORDER denying 160 Letter Motion for Extension of Time to Complete Discovery. On October 31, 2013, the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit issued a mandate directing the District Court to "implement th[e] Court's mandate staying all proceedings and otherwise await further action by the Court of Appeals on the merits of the ongoing appeals." Corrected Mandate 3, Oct. 31, 2013, ECF No. 157. By letter dated November 20, 2013, Plaintiffs state, "[c]ounsel for the defendants indicated this week, without explanation, that they do not agree that discovery in this case is stayed. If Your Honor does not believe that discovery is stayed by the Second Circuit's mandate, the plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court extend the current discovery deadline by 60 days and provide the parties with guidance on the appropriate method of raising discovery disputes." By letter dated November 22, 2013, Defendants state that, "they read the Second Circuit's November 1, 2013 Corrected Mandate to stay only the proceedings related to the preliminary injunction... and not discovery [but] can certainly understand, however, plaintiffs' contrary reading in light of the broad wording of the Corrected Mandate. Further, defendants do not dispute, under all of the circumstances, that it would make sense to stay all proceedings pending the outcome of the appeal." Plaintiffs' request is DENIED. Pursuant to the Second Circuit's stay of "all proceedings," the parties are ORDERED to cease discovery. (Signed by Judge Analisa Torres on 11/22/2013) (rsh) (Entered: 11/22/2013)

07/30/2014	197	OPINION AND ORDER re: (436 in 1:08-cv-01034-AT-HBP) MOTION to Intervene. filed by Lieutenants Benevolent Association of the City of New York, Inc., NYPD Captains Endowment Association, Detectives' Endowment Association, Inc., Patrolmen's Benevolent Association of the City of New York, Inc., (171 in 1:12-cv-02274-AT-HBP) MOTION to Intervene filed by Lieutenants Benevolent Association of the City of New York, Inc., NYPD Captains Endowment Association, Detectives' Endowment Association, Inc., Patrolmen's Benevolent Association of the City of New York, Inc., (441 in 1:08-cv-01034-AT-HBP) SUPPLEMENTAL MOTION to Intervene Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 24 filed by Sergeants Benevolent Association. The Unions' motions to intervene are DENIED for three reasons: (1) the motions are untimely; (2) the Unions have no significant protectable interests relating to the subject of the litigation that would warrant intervention; and (3) even if their alleged interests were cognizable, the Unions lack standing to vindicate those interests on appeal. The parties' motion for an order modifying the Remedial Order is GRANTED. The modification shall be set forth in a separate order to be issued forthwith. The Unions' request to participate in the settlement of Floyd and Ligon is, therefore, DENIED as moot. The Unions' request to participate in the remedial phase of Floyd is also DENIED as moot because the Remedial Order already offers "police organizations" the opportunity to participate in the development of reforms to NYPD stop-and-frisk policies and procedures through the "Joint Remedial Process." To the extent the Unions request to participate in the remedial phase of Ligon, that request is DENIED for the same reasons the Court denies their motion to intervene for the purpose of appealing the Remedial Order. Having resolved the motions to intervene, and having approved the terms of the parties' proposed resolution of the City's appeals, the Court has continuing jurisdiction only "insofar as is necessary to effectuate a settlement." Ligon, 743 F.3d at 365. Accordingly, by August 6, 2014, the City shall submit a letter to the Court indicating the status of its pending appeals. This Court shall take no further action unrelated to effectuating the parties' settlement unless and until the Court of Appeals dissolves the stay or otherwise returns jurisdiction to the District Court. The Clerk of Court shall terminate the motions at ECF Nos. 436 and 441 in Floyd and ECF No. 171 in Ligon. (Signed by Judge Analisa Torres on 7/30/2014) (tro) (Entered: 07/30/2014)
07/30/2014	198	ORDER MODIFYING REMEDIAL ORDER terminating 188 Motion to Amend/Correct 120 Memorandum & Opinion. For the reasons stated in an Opinion and Order of even date, and pursuant to the directive of the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit to "effectuate a settlement," Mandate and Opinion, (Feb. 21, 2014), Floyd, ECF No. 426; Ligon, ECF No. 166, IT IS ORDERED that paragraph 12 on page 13 of the Remedial Order, Floyd, ECF No. 372; Ligon, ECF No. 120, is deleted and the following is substituted in its place: 12. a. The Monitor's position will come to an end in Floyd no sooner than three years after the Court's entry of the final order approving the Immediate Reforms to be developed in Floyd and if and only if the City can show by a preponderance of the evidence at that time that it has achieved substantial compliance with all of the Immediate and Joint Process Reforms to be approved and so-ordered by the Court in Floyd. If the City fails to make such showing, the Monitor's position will continue until such time as the City can make the required showing of substantial compliance. b. The Monitor's position with respect to the preliminary injunctive relief in Ligon will come to an end no sooner than three years after the Court's entry of the final order approving the preliminary injunctive relief set forth in Section III of this Order, entitled "Remedies in Ligon" (the "Ligon Preliminary Injunctive Relief") and if and only if the City can show by a preponderance of the evidence at that time that it has achieved substantial compliance with all of the Ligon Preliminary Injunctive Relief. If the City fails to make such showing, the Monitor's position will continue until such time as the City can make the required showing of substantial compliance. c. "Substantial compliance" in Floyd shall be defined as compliance with all material aspects of the Immediate and Joint Process Reforms to be approved and so-ordered by the Court. "Substantial compliance" in

		Ligon shall be defined as compliance with all material aspects of the Ligon Preliminary Injunctive Relief. In either case, noncompliance with mere technicalities, or temporary failure to comply during a period of otherwise sustained compliance will not constitute a failure of substantial compliance. However, temporary compliance during a period of otherwise sustained non-compliance shall not constitute substantial compliance. d. Substantial compliance shall be measured using the milestones to be set by the Monitor pursuant to paragraph 5 above. The Clerk of Court shall terminate the motions at ECF No. 456 in Floyd and ECF No. 188 in Ligon. (Signed by Judge Analisa Torres on 7/30/2014) (tro) (Entered: 07/30/2014)

11/10/2014	203	ORDER APPOINTING FACILITATOR: This Order supplements the Remedies Opinion of August 12, 2013, which directed the parties to engage in a community-based remedial process (the "Joint Remedial Process") to develop sustainable reforms to the stop-and-frisk practices of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"). By Supplemental Order dated September 4, 2013, the Court appointed Nicholas Turner as Facilitator to guide the Joint Remedial Process. Due to professional obligations that have arisen since his appointment, Mr. Turner has withdrawn as Facilitator. The Court now appoints as Facilitator the Honorable Ariel E. Belen, a retired Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Appellate Division, Second Department, currently serving as a neutral mediator and arbitrator at JAMS, an alternative dispute resolution ("ADR") provider. Justice Belen, a graduate of Cornell Law School, began his legal career as a public defender with the Legal Aid Society of New York (1981-1990). At Legal Aid, he represented indigent criminal defendants, frequently participating in suppression hearings concerning, among other issues, stop-and-frisk violations. Later, at the City of New York Law Department, he worked as an Assistant Corporation Counsel (1990-1993), Deputy Chief of the Brooklyn Tort Division (1993-1994), and Chief of the Bronx Borough Office (1994), representing police officers sued for alleged civil rights violations, unlawful detentions, and the use of excessive force. Beginning in 1995, Justice Belen served in Kings County as a New York State Supreme Court Justice in various capacities, including in the trial court, at the Appellate Term, and as Administrative Judge of the Civil Term. Justice Belen was appointed to the Appellate Division, Second Department in 2008. In 2012, he joined JAMS. Justice Belen chairs the ADR Committee of the New York County Lawyers' Association and is a Member of the Executive Advisory Committee of the International Institute for Conflict Prevention & Resolution Panel of Distinguished Neutrals. Under the City's approach, the City will share proposals with the unions before providing them to the Monitor and the Plaintiffs. The unions may then offer their comments, which the City will convey to the Monitor. The City will continue to confer with the unions about substantial revisions proposed by the Monitor and the Plaintiffs.1 This approach affords the unions "a practical opportunity" to inform the Monitor of their viewpoints before the Monitor reaches conclusions and submits Final Recommendations to the Court. Accordingly, the unions' request is GRANTED to the extent that the Court invites the unions to participate in the manner described above. Accordingly, on consent of the parties, it is ORDERED that the NYPD use a randomized experimental design for the body–worn camera one–year pilot program. (As further set forth in this Order.) 03/21/2017	276	ORDER: The Monitor his submitted recommendations regarding training to be given at roll call regarding enforcement activities in and near residences enrolled in the Trespass Affidavit Program ("TAP"). ECF No. 260. Plaintiffs object to the Monitor's recommendation with respect to the voice-over script for slide 17 of the proposed training. ECF No. 261. In particular, Plaintiffs worry that the training "would permit officers who lack probable cause to believe a person is trespassing nonetheless to order the person to leave and then to use a failure to comply with that order to justify an arrest." Id. at 1. Additional letters were filed by Defendants, Plaintiffs, and the plaintiffs in Davis v. City of New York, No. 10 Civ. 699. ECF Nos. 269, 271, 273. In June 2016, the Court approved revisions to Patrol Guide ("P.G.") 212-59, which sets forth the procedures governing interactions between the police and the public in and

		around TAP buildings. ECF No. 249. All parties supported the approval of these revisions. Id. at 6. The proposed voice-over script for slide 17 includes some but not all of the language in P.G. 212-59. The Court finds that the addition of language from P.G. 212-59 to the proposed voice-over script for slide 17 clarifies the probable cause requirement. Accordingly, the Monitor's recommendation is APPROVED with the following modification of the proposed voice-over script for slide 17: Now let's discuss how you can deal with a person who is uncooperative and won't answer your questions, or where you can't verify a person's authority to be in the building. At Levels 1 and 2, when individuals are free to walk away, a person's decision to leave the building, remain silent, or refuse to provide information or identification when questioned by the police does not give you reasonable suspicion to stop or probable cause to arrest. Even at Level 3, you may detain the person but he or she is still not required to answer your questions. Remember, the burden of proving that an individual does not have authority to be in the building rests on the Police. The individual is not required to answer questions, not even about his or her authority to be in the building. If you suspect the person does not have authority to be in the building, but the person cannot or refuses to explain his or her presence in the building, and you are unable to verify the person's authority to be in the building, you may instruct that person that he or she must leave the building, and that refusal may result in arrest for Criminal Trespass. However, you may only arrest the person if there is probable cause to believe that the person committed a trespass. A reasonable investigation is ordinarily necessary to determine whether probable cause exists. A person's refusal or inability to produce identification or provide information does not elevate the level of the encounter.
