ENDORSEMENT: The Court has reviewed this letter and plaintiffs letter of March 5, 2007 in opposition. There is no need for a promotion conference, and defendants may move for reconsideration of the Courts August 2006 order in light of Wallace v. Kato. The Court is particularly interested in the parties views as to claims are subject to Wallace v Kato and which claims, if any survive. The parties should meet and confer on an appropriate schedule for submission to the Court. So Ordered. (Signed by Judge Paul A. Crotty on 03/07/2007) (mov) (Entered: 03/08/2007)

06/16/2009	69	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Paul A. Crotty from Arthur G. Larkin dated June 12, 2009 re: Request Your Honor's assistance in resolving a dispute with regard to non-party depositions, which we have tried to resolve with plaintiff's counsel in good faith without success to date. ENDORSEMENT: The application to divide the time of the non party deponents is denied. Plaintiff may depose the witnesses for the full 7 hours the Rules allow. It is clear that the defendants counsel has access to witnesses which plaintiff does not have. Plaintiff can gain access only by way of subpoena, and it would be unfair to truncate the time allowed for by the rules. The parties should work in good faith to resolve their disputes and, if possible, share the deposition time, but so it is clear plaintiff is entitled to the full time allowed for the non party witness it has subpoenaed. As to the identification of the complaining witness the parties should not publicize the name and the Court will address this matter at the next pretrial conference. SO ORDERED. 06/25/2009	71	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Paul A. Crotty from Arthur G. Larkin dated June 24, 2009 re: We write in response to plaintiff's letter of yesterday's date concerning their requests (1) for an open-ended, forty-five day extension of all

		discovery, and (2) for an order adjourning plaintiffs deposition. We advised plaintiffs counsel yesterday that we do not object to an extension of discovery to allow depositions now scheduled to proceed, but that we do object to an unrestricted discovery extension. We also advised counsel that we object to adjourning plaintiffs deposition given the late stage of discovery, and given the number of depositions that already have been pushed into July (subject to Court approval). Accordingly, we submit that plaintiffs request should be denied, and that instead, the Court should enter a discovery order as set forth below. Because plaintiffs deposition is now scheduled for this Friday, June 26, we respectfully request that Your Honor decide the instant application as soon as reasonably practicable. ENDORSEMENT: (1) The request to adjourn Ms. Feinsteins deposition for 3 months is denied. The deposition must proceed as scheduled, (2) The City must complete document discovery forthwith; (3) The deposition of plaintiff currently scheduled for June 26, 2009, may be adjourned for up to 2 weeks but must be conducted and completed by no later than Friday July 10, 2009, (4) The discovery cutoff of June 30, 2009 is extended for one month to Friday July 31, 2009 (5) The conference scheduled for July 7, 2009 is adjourned, but if there are any further disputes, either side may call chambers and a conference will be scheduled immediately. In any event a conference will be scheduled at some time during the first two weeks of August. Mr. Ovalles, my Courtroom Deputy, will be in contact with the parties. SO ORDERED. 08/05/2009	74	ENDORSED LETTER addressed to Judge Paul A. Crotty from Arthur G. Larkin dated August 3, 2009 re: We write concerning plaintiffs letter of July 28, 2009. We wish to raise four matters with Your Honor at this time. First defendants object to the deposition of one of the witnesses listed in plaintiffs letter, Jane Rzucek, the mother of the complaining witness in this case; second, defendants wish to depose one additional witness whose name is not listed in plaintiffs letter (Alan Kaufman, one of plaintiffs criminal defense attorneys), and we understand that plaintiff does not object to this deposition; third, we intend to file a motion to quash the subpoena served upon Dr. Nicholas Norton; and fourth, we request the opportunity to serve deposition notices upon plaintiffs experts, should we choose to do so, and we understand that plaintiff will object to any such notices. ENDORSEMENT: (1) The objection to the deposition of Ms. Rzucek is overruled. (2) The deposition of Mr. Kaufman will be allowed (3) With respect to Dr. Norton, the City may make its motion on or prior to August 14. (4) Rebuttal reports to plaintiffs expert reports may be filed up to September 30, 2009, and defendant may also serve supplemental discovery concerning the expert reports. The City may depose these experts if it wishes to do so. (Signed by Judge Paul A. Crotty on August 5, 2009) (mov) (Entered: 08/05/2009)
