

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA:

SS.

COUNTY OF PHILADELPHIA:

SIDNEY CLIETT, JR., being duely sworn deposes and says:

(1) I am a citizen of the United States and a resident of Philadelphia.

(2) On Wednesday, March 27, 1985, while returning home from visiting acquaintances I had to pass the intersection of 38th and Haverford Avenue.

(3) As I was about to cross this intersection a number of police officers converged and detained myself and a number of other individuals.

(4) I was ordered up against the wall and though I asked the cause of this intrusion I was given no explanation. Thereafter my person and my belongings were thoroughly searched. This included a body frisk and a complete search of my pockets and duffle-bag.

(5) My continued insistence that I be apprised of the cause justifying what the police were doing lead a second officer to threaten me with arrest.

(6) I found what the police did both intimidating and embarrassing.

(7) Because the police found no drug on me they let me go telling me that I was in the wrong area and shouldn't come down there any more.
