STEVEN ROSEN, et al.,	:
Plaintiffs	:	Civil Action No. 2000-CV-764
vs.	:	HON. PETRESE TUCKER
CITY OF PHILADELPHIA ,	:	CERTIFIED CLASS ACTION
Defendant	:

ORDER AND FINAL JUDGMENT

On the 26th day of September, 2003, a hearing having been held before this Court to determine: (1) whether the terms and conditions of the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement of Class Damage Claims dated March 13, 2003 (“Stipulation”) are fair, reasonable and adequate for the settlement of all damage claims asserted by the Class against the Defendant in the Complaint now pending in this Court under the above caption, including the release of the Defendant and the Released Parties, and should be approved; (2) whether judgment should be entered dismissing the Complaint on the merits and with prejudice in favor of the Defendant and as against all persons or entities who are members of the Class herein who have not requested exclusion therefrom; (3) whether to approve the Plan of Allocation as a fair and reasonable method to allocate the settlement proceeds among the members of the Class; and (4) whether and in what amount to award Plaintiffs’ Counsel fees and reimbursement of expenses. The Court having considered all matters submitted to it at the hearing and otherwise; and it appearing that a Notice of the Hearing substantially in the form approved by the Court was mailed to all persons or entities reasonably identifiable and further that a summary notice of the hearing substantially in the form approved by the Court was published in the Philadelphia Inquirer, the Philadelphia Daily News and the Philadelphia Tribune, on May 20, 2003, pursuant to the specifications of the Court; and the Court having considered and determined the fairness and reasonableness of the award of attorneys' fees and expenses requested; and all terms used herein having the meanings as set forth and defined in the Stipulation.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action, the Plaintiffs, all Class Members and the Defendant.

2. The Court confirms its previous finding that the prerequisites for a class action under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 (a) and (b)(3) have been satisfied in that: (a) the number of Class Members is so numerous that joinder of all members thereof is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law and fact common to the Class; (c) the claims of the Class Representatives are typical of the claims of the Class they seek to represent; (d) the Class Representatives have and will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Class; (e) the questions of law and fact common to the members of the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class; and (f) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

3. Pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure this Court hereby finally certifies a damage class pursuant to F.R.CIV.P. 23(b)(3) consisting of all persons with diabetes who have been denied timely and appropriate medical care and diet while in the custody of the Philadelphia Police Department between February 11, 1998 and March 31, 2001, as a result of defendant's customs and policies denying timely and appropriate medical care and diet to persons with diabetes in police custody. Excluded from the Class are the persons and/or entities who requested exclusion from the Class as listed on Exhibit A annexed hereto.

4. Notice of the pendency of this Action as a class action and of the proposed Settlement was given to all Class Members who could be identified with reasonable effort. The form and method of notifying the Class of the pendency of the action as a class action and of the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement met the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, due process, and any other applicable law, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constituted due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled thereto.

5. The class damages Settlement is approved as fair, reasonable and adequate, and the Class Members and the parties are directed to consummate the Settlement in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Stipulation.

6. The Complaint is hereby dismissed with prejudice, except as to the individual plaintiffs who filed for exclusion, and without costs, except as provided in the Stipulation, as against the Defendant.

7. Members of the Class and the successors and assigns of any of them, are hereby permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, commencing or prosecuting, either directly or in any other capacity, any damage claims, rights or causes of action or liabilities, whether based on federal, state, local, statutory or common law, or any other law, rule or regulation, including both known and unknown damage claims, that have been or could have been asserted in any forum by the Class Members or any of them against any of the Released Parties, which arise out of or relate in any way to their diabetes or treatment or lack of treatment for diabetes while in police custody, excluding damages claims by persons who filed a request for exclusion, damage claims any person may have which do not specifically relate to the care, treatment and diet they received for their diabetes while in police custody during the Class Period, any claims for injunctive relief, and claims to enforce the Settlement or any of its terms, against the Defendant, its past or present agents, employees, and the legal representatives, heirs, successors in interest or assigns of the Defendant (the "Released Parties"). The Settled Claims (as defined in the Stipulation") are hereby compromised, settled, released, discharged and dismissed as against the Released Parties on the merits and with prejudice by virtue of the proceedings herein and this Order and Final Judgment.

8. The Defendant and the successors and assigns of any of them, are hereby permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, commencing or prosecuting, either directly or in any other capacity, any and all claims, rights or causes of action or liabilities whatsoever, whether based on federal, state, local, statutory or common law or any other law, rule or regulation, including both known claims and unknown claims, that have been or could have been asserted in the Action or any forum by the Defendant or any of them or the successors and assigns of any of them against any of the Plaintiffs, Class Members or their attorneys, which arise out of or relate in any way to the institution, prosecution, or settlement of the Action against any of the Plaintiffs, Class Members or their attorneys.

9. Neither this Order and Final Judgment, the Stipulation, nor any of its terms and provisions, nor any of the negotiations or proceedings in connection with it, nor any of the documents or statements referred to therein shall be:

(a) offered or received against the Defendant or against the Plaintiffs or the Class as evidence of or construed as or deemed to be evidence of any presumption, concession, or admission by the Defendant or by any of the Plaintiffs or the Class with respect to the truth of any fact alleged by Plaintiffs or the validity of any claim that had been or could have been asserted in the Action or in any litigation, or the deficiency of any defense that has been or could have been asserted in the Action or in any litigation, or of any liability, negligence, fault, or wrongdoing of the Defendant;

(b) offered or received against the Defendant as evidence of a presumption, concession or admission of any fault, misrepresentation or omission with respect to any statement or written document approved or made by the Defendant, or against the Plaintiffs and the Class as evidence of any infirmity in the claims of Plaintiffs and the Class;

(c) offered or received against the Defendant or against the Plaintiffs or the Class as evidence of a presumption, concession or admission with respect to any liability, negligence, fault or wrongdoing, or in any way referred to for any other reason as against any of the parties to the Stipulation, in any other civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding, other than such proceedings as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of the Stipulation; provided, however, that Defendant may refer to the Stipulation to effectuate the liability protection granted it thereunder;

(d) construed against the Defendant or the Plaintiffs and the Class as an admission or concession that the consideration to be given hereunder represents the amount which could be or would have been recovered after trial; or

(e) construed as or received in evidence as an admission, concession or presumption against Plaintiffs or the Class or any of them that any of their claims are without merit or that damages recoverable under the Complaint would not have exceeded the Settlement Fund.

10. The Plan of Allocation set forth in the Stipulation is approved as fair and reasonable, and Plaintiffs' Counsel, Defendant's Counsel and the Claims Administrator are directed to administer the Stipulation in accordance with its terms and provisions.

11. The Court finds that all parties and their counsel have complied with each requirement of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as to all proceedings herein.

12. Plaintiffs' Counsel are hereby awarded the sum of Forty Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($42,500.00) in compromise of their fair and reasonable fees and expenses in connection with the damages action, which amounts shall be paid to Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel by Defendant City of Philadelphia. The award of attorneys' fees shall be allocated among Plaintiffs' Counsel such in a fashion which, in the opinion of Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel, fairly compensates Plaintiffs' Counsel for their respective contributions in the prosecution of the Action.

13. Exclusive jurisdiction is hereby retained over the parties and the Class Members for all matters relating to this Action, including the administration, interpretation, effectuation or enforcement of the Stipulation and this Order and Final Judgment.

14. Without further order of the Court, the parties may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provisions of the Stipulation.

15. There is no just reason for delay in the entry of this Order and Final Judgment and immediate entry by the Clerk of the Court is expressly directed pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

STEVEN ROSEN, et al.,	:
Plaintiffs	:	Civil Action No. 2000-CV-764
vs.	:	HON. PETRESE TUCKER
CITY OF PHILADELPHIA ,	:	CERTIFIED CLASS ACTION
Defendant	:

UNOPPOSED MOTION FOR ENTRY OF ORDER AND FINAL JUDGMENT

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e), the plaintiffs class, unopposed by defendant, the City of Philadelphia, hereby move the Court grant final approval to the Damages Class Settlement and enter Final Judgment, in the form attached hereto, and in support thereof, represent the following:

1. A Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement of Class Damage Claims was entered signed by counsel for the parties on March 13, 2003 (“Stipulation”).
2. The Court gave preliminary approval to the Settlement by Order dated May , 2003.
3. Notice in a form approved by the Court was mailed to all persons or entities reasonably identifiable and further that a summary notice of the hearing substantially in the form approved by the Court was published in the Philadelphia Inquirer, the Philadelphia Daily News and the Philadelphia Tribune, on May 20, 2003, pursuant to the specifications of the Court.
4. The Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the Action, the Plaintiffs, all Class Members and the Defendant.
5. The Court has previously found that the prerequisites for a class action under Fed. R. Civ. P. 23 (a) and (b)(3) have been satisfied in that: (a) the number of Class Members is so numerous that joinder of all members thereof is impracticable; (b) there are questions of law and fact common to the Class; (c) the claims of the Class Representatives are typical of the claims of the Class they seek to represent; (d) the Class Representatives have and will fairly and adequately represent the interests of the Class; (e) the questions of law and fact common to the members of the Class predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class; and (f) a class action is superior to other available methods for the fair and efficient adjudication of the controversy.

6. Pursuant to Rule 23(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure the Court provisionally certified a damage class pursuant to F.R.CIV.P. 23(b)(3) consisting of all persons with diabetes who have been denied timely and appropriate medical care and diet while in the custody of the Philadelphia Police Department between February 11, 1998 and March 31, 2001, as a result of defendant's customs and policies denying timely and appropriate medical care and diet to persons with diabetes in police custody.
7. Claims have been presented and assigned a point value pursuant to the provisions of the Stipulation, as implemented by the Court's May 13th Order. Exhibit "B", attached.
8. Excluded from the Class are the persons and/or entities who requested exclusion from the Class as listed on Exhibit "A".
9. Notice of the pendency of this Action as a class action and of the proposed Settlement was given to all Class Members who could be identified with reasonable effort. The form and method of notifying the Class of the pendency of the action as a class action and of the terms and conditions of the proposed Settlement met the requirements of Rule 23 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, due process, and any other applicable law, constituted the best notice practicable under the circumstances, and constituted due and sufficient notice to all persons and entities entitled thereto.

10. The proposed class damages Settlement is fair, reasonable and adequate, as is more fully set forth in the terms and provisions of the Stipulation.
11. Upon entry of a Final Judgment, the Complaint will be dismissed with prejudice, except as to the individual plaintiffs who filed for exclusion, and without costs, except as provided in the Stipulation, as against the Defendant.
12. Pursuant to the Stipulation, Members of the Class and the successors and assigns of any of them, will be permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, commencing or prosecuting, either directly or in any other capacity, any damage claims, rights or causes of action or liabilities, whether based on federal, state, local, statutory or common law, or any other law, rule or regulation, including both known and unknown damage claims, that have been or could have been asserted in any forum by the Class Members or any of them against any of the Released Parties, which arise out of or relate in any way to their diabetes or treatment or lack of treatment for diabetes while in police custody, excluding damages claims by persons who filed a request for exclusion, damage claims any person may have which do not specifically relate to the care, treatment and diet they received for their diabetes while in police custody during the Class Period, any claims for injunctive relief, and claims to enforce the Settlement or any of its terms, against the Defendant, its past or present agents, employees, and the legal representatives, heirs, successors in interest or assigns of the Defendant (the "Released Parties"). The Settled Claims (as defined in the Stipulation") will be compromised, settled, released, discharged and dismissed as against the Released Parties on the merits and with prejudice by virtue of the proceedings herein and this Order and Final Judgment.

13. The Defendant and their successors and assigns, will permanently barred and enjoined from instituting, commencing or prosecuting, either directly or in any other capacity, any and all claims, rights or causes of action or liabilities whatsoever, whether based on federal, state, local, statutory or common law or any other law, rule or regulation, including both known claims and unknown claims, that have been or could have been asserted in the Action or any forum by the Defendant or any of them or the successors and assigns of any of them against any of the Plaintiffs, Class Members or their attorneys, which arise out of or relate in any way to the institution, prosecution, or settlement of the Action against any of the Plaintiffs, Class Members or their attorneys.
14. Neither the Order and Final Judgment, the Stipulation, nor any of its terms and provisions, nor any of the negotiations or proceedings in connection with it, nor any of the documents or statements referred to therein shall be:
 - (a) offered or received against the Defendant or against the Plaintiffs or the Class as evidence of or construed as or deemed to be evidence of any presumption, concession, or admission by the Defendant or by any of the Plaintiffs or the Class with respect to the truth of any fact alleged by Plaintiffs or the validity of any claim that had been or could have been asserted in the Action or in any litigation, or the deficiency of any defense that has been or could have been asserted in the Action or in any litigation, or of any liability, negligence, fault, or wrongdoing of the Defendant;
 - (c) offered or received against the Defendant as evidence of a presumption, concession or admission of any fault, misrepresentation or omission with respect to any statement or written document approved or made by the Defendant, or against the Plaintiffs and the Class as evidence of any infirmity in the claims of Plaintiffs and the Class.

- (c) offered or received against the Defendant or against the Plaintiffs or the Class as evidence of a presumption, concession or admission with respect to any liability, negligence, fault or wrongdoing, or in any way referred to for any other reason as against any of the parties to the Stipulation, in any other civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding, other than such proceedings as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of the Stipulation; provided, however, that Defendant may refer to the Stipulation to effectuate the liability protection granted it thereunder;
- (d) construed against the Defendant or the Plaintiffs and the Class as an admission or concession that the consideration to be given hereunder represents the amount which could be or would have been recovered after trial; or
- (e) construed as or received in evidence as an admission, concession or presumption against Plaintiffs or the Class or any of them that any of their claims are without merit or that damages recoverable under the Complaint would not have exceeded the Settlement Fund.

15. The Plan of Allocation set forth in the Stipulation is fair and reasonable.

16. All parties and their counsel have complied with each requirement of Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure as to all proceedings herein.

17. Plaintiffs' Counsel have submitted a fee motion seeking an award the sum of Forty Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($42,500.00) in compromise of their fair and reasonable fees and expenses in connection with the damages action, which amounts shall be paid to Plaintiffs' Lead Counsel by Defendant City of Philadelphia.
18. Pursuant to the Stipulation exclusive jurisdiction is retained over the parties and the Class Members for all matters relating to this Action, including the administration, interpretation, effectuation or enforcement of the Stipulation and the Order and Final Judgment.
19. Pursuant to the Stipulation, without further order of the Court, the parties may agree to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provisions of the Stipulation.
20. There is no just reason for delay in the entry of an Order and Final Judgment and immediate entry by the Clerk of the Court should be directed pursuant to Rule 54(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

WHEREFORE, the parties pray this Honorable Court grant final approval to the Damages Class Settlement and enter Final Judgment, in the form attached hereto.
