2 pg, 269.07 KB Filed clerk order (Deputy Clerk: DJV): A review of the record suggests that this court may lack jurisdiction over the appeal because the district court's order, entered on October 19, 2017, denying appellant's motion for vacatur and dismissal with prejudice is not appealable as a final judgment or an order that comes within the collateral order doctrine. See 28 U.S.C. § 1291; Midland Asphalt Corp. v. United States, 489 U.S. 794, 798 (1989) (stating that finality requirement generally "prohibits appellate review until after conviction and imposition of sentence"). Within 21 days after the date of this order, appellant shall move for voluntary dismissal of the appeal or show cause why it should not be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction. If appellant elects to show cause, a response may be filed within 10 days after service of the memorandum. Failure to comply with this order may result in the dismissal of the appeal for failure to prosecute. See 9th Cir. R. 42-1. Briefing is suspended pending further order of the court. TALLMAN) The motion for leave to participate as amici curae, filed by The Protect Democracy Project, Inc., Free Speech For People, Coalition to Preserve, Protect and Defend, and the Roderick and Solange Macarthur Justice Center, (Docket Entry No. [5]) is granted in part and denied in part. The Clerk shall file the proposed brief of amici curae at Docket Entry No. [5]. Amici curae may also file a supplemental brief addressing the merits of this appeal that complies with Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 29. The emergency request for the appointment of a special prosecutor under Fed. R. Crim. P. 42(a)(2) to “notice a cross-appeal of the District Court’s Order upholding validity of the Pardon and terminating the contempt prosecution,” contained within the brief at Docket Entry No. [5], is denied. Within 21 days after the date of this order, appellee United States of America shall file a statement indicating whether it intends to enter an appearance and file an answering brief in this appeal from the district court’s November 19, 2017 order. In appellee United States of America’s statement, in the event it is the position of the Department of Justice not to defend the November 19 order, appellee shall also provide its position on whether this court should appoint counsel to represent the government’s interests on appeal and defend the district court’s order. Appellant and Amici may file an optional reply within 7 days after service of appellee’s statement. The request for the appointment of counsel to “defend the District Court’s Order denying [appellant’s] request for vacatur,” contained within the brief at Docket Entry No. [5], shall be addressed by separate order. 15 pg, 111.95 KB Filed Order for PUBLICATION (A. WALLACE TASHIMA, WILLIAM A. FLETCHER and RICHARD C. TALLMAN) (Dissent by Judge Tallman) This case is on appeal from the district court's denial of Defendant-Appellant's request for vacatur of his conviction for criminal contempt. The validity of the district court's denial will be addressed by the merits panel assigned to this case. We address only the question of whether to appoint a special prosecutor to defend the district court's decision in light of the United States' letter informing this Court that "[t]he government does not intend to defend the district court's order." For the reasons discussed below, we will appoint a special prosecutor to provide briefing and argument to the merits panel. (SEE ORDER FOR FULL TEXT) We will appoint special counsel and address all other pending motions by separate order. SO ORDERED. [10839081] (RMM) [Entered: 04/17/2018 07:23 AM]

06/01/2018	26 2 pg, 43.34 KB	Filed Order for PUBLICATION (Sidney R. Thomas, Chief Judge and En Banc Coordinator): A judge has made a sua sponte request for a vote on whether to rehear en banc the published order dated April 17, 2018 by a motions panel of this Court appointing a special prosecutor to defend the district court's denial of defendant Arpaio's request for vacatur of his criminal contempt conviction. United States v. Arpaio, 887 F.3d 979 (9th Cir. 2018). Therefore, pursuant to General Order 5.4(c)(3), the parties are requested to file simultaneous briefs setting forth their respective positions on whether or not the order should be reheard en banc. Specifically, the parties are directed to address the question as to whether the Court has the authority, either pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 42(a)(2) or under its inherent authority, to appoint a special prosecutor under the circumstances presented by this case. The briefs are not to exceed 7,000 words and shall be filed within 21 days of the date of this order. Amici are permitted, but not required, to file a brief within 21 days of the date of this order not to exceed 7,000 words stating their positions on whether the order should be reheard en banc. 10/15/2018	42 3 pg, 52.83 KB	Filed order (A. WALLACE TASHIMA, WILLIAM A. FLETCHER and RICHARD C. TALLMAN, concurrence) On April 17, 2018, our Court issued an order authorizing the appointment of a “special prosecutor to provide briefing and argument to the merits panel” that will hear the appeal of former sheriff Joe Arpaio from the district court’s denial of his motion to vacate his conviction for contempt of court. United States v. Arpaio, 887 F.3d 979, 980 (9th Cir. 2018). On October 10, 2018, our Court denied en banc rehearing of that order. United States v. Arpaio, No. 17-10448, 2018 WL 4904770 (9th Cir. Oct. 10, 2018). Pursuant to our April 17, 2018 order, we hereby appoint Christopher G. Caldwell as special prosecutor for purposes of this appeal. The special prosecutor will be limited to the functions a government attorney would have performed in connection with Arpaio’s appeal in this Court had the government been willing to perform those functions. The Clerk shall amend the docket to reflect that Christopher G. Caldwell Boies, Schiller and Flexner 725 S. Figueroa Street Los Angeles, CA 90017 (213) 629-9040 is added as additional counsel of record for appellee United States of America. Within 14 days after the date of this order, special prosecutor Caldwell shall register on the Court’s website for electronic filing/noticing with the Case Management Electronic Case Files (CM/ECF) system if he is not already registered. A briefing schedule will be established by separate order. [11047329] (WL) [Entered: 10/15/2018 03:05 PM]

10/25/2018	45 2 pg, 195.67 KB	Filed order (A. WALLACE TASHIMA, WILLIAM A. FLETCHER and RICHARD C. TALLMAN) We have received appellee's October 22, 2018 "motion to stay the mandate and the briefing schedule." To the extent that appellee requests this court stay the issuance of the mandate in this appeal, such request is unnecessary. Because proceedings in this appeal remain ongoing, there is no mandate to stay. To the extent that appellee requests this court stay the briefing schedule for this appeal, the request is granted (Docket Entry No. [44]). Within 90 days after the date of this order, or within 7 days after the Solicitor General's determination whether to file a petition for writ of certiorari from this court's April 17, 2018 and October 15, 2018 orders, whichever occurs first, appellee shall submit a status report, or file a motion for the appropriate relief. Failure to file a timely report or motion in response to this order may result in a termination of the stay of proceedings. Briefing is stayed pending further order of this court.
