: CIVIL NO. 11946 WCO
VERSUS :
: ROBERT R. FREEMAN, et al. :

O R D E R

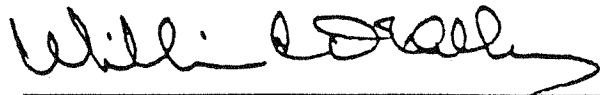

The court conducted a telephone conference with counsel for all parties on February 23, 1990 to determine what further remedial action is required of the defendants by the order of the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals dated October 11, 1989. The court notes that the defendants' application for en banc consideration by the Court of Appeals was denied as was the defendants' motion for a stay pending the Supreme Court's decision on the defendants' application for a writ of certiorari.

The defendants' are hereby directed to prepare and submit within twenty days of the date of this order a proposal describing the remedial action the defendants intend to take by the beginning of the 1990-91 school year to comply with the order of the Court of Appeals. The defendants should also outline the action they intend to take on their own initiative in the future in order to achieve maximum possible desegregation. Specifically, the defendants should address whether they plan to implement a junior high school program, and if so, the framework of that plan. The defendants should also discuss their plans for the
