08/30/1993	1387	MEMORANDUM OPINION # 72016, Although the limited scope of this phase of the proceedings does not encompass an overall consideration of fiscal matters, it is appropriate to note, placing these issues in context, that Yonkers has had a long history of fundings its school system less generously than its more affluent Westchester neighbors. Because Yonkers has offered lower starting salaries than other Westchester communities or nearby NYC, has endured repeated budget crises, and perhaps because of the political and social turmoil which has been a part of Yonkers life for so long, teacher recruitment has not been easy. According to Assistant Supt. Joseph Michael Guerney, Yonkers spends less per capita for education than any other community in Westchester and would continue to do so even if the entire burden of funding EIP II were placed upon the City. Operating in this fiscal context and in a city which has in the past resisted housing desegregation efforts w/ astonishing tenacity, the YBE's task of integrating its long segregated school system is indeed a formidable one. We find that the YBE, its former Supt., Dr. Joan Raymond, and her successor, Dr. Donald Batista, and their staffs, addressed this task w/ enthusiasm and a sincere desire to make EIP I succeed. This case is markedly different from the many cases in which further relief is sought by class representative because the managers of the City's school system have been either passive or half-hearted in their efforts to desegregate. We are satisfied that Dr. Batista's evaluation of the problems confronting the YBE in its efforts to eradicate vestiges of segregation is an accurate one. We find that although minority students in Yonkers attend school in the same buildings as majority students, they are undergoing different educational experiences. Proof of this lies, we believe, in the data shown w/ respect to achievement scores, suspensions, retentions and drop-out rates. We emphasize that we have answered the three questions posed in our 7/10/92 Opinion only and have not addressed any questions relating to the State's liability for the existence of these conditions nor any question relating to the relative responsibility of the City and State. These further questions will be addressed at the next stage of these proceedings. The parties are to confer and advise the Court in writing by 10/4/93 when they will be ready to proceed to trial on the remaining questions ( Signed by Judge Leonard B. Sand ); Copies mailed. (emil) (Entered: 08/31/1993)
09/01/1993	1388	ORDER, The 1993-94 City of Yonkers budget shall not be altered but the Yonkers Board of Education shall put in place an interim spending plan for 1993-94 which will enable the Board to spend at an annualized rate of $203.6 million pending the determination of this motion. The Board of Education's decision to implement the interim spending plan by reducing its accrual for the NY Teachers Retirement System for 1993-94 by the amount of $6.9 million is approved. In the event that this Court shall determine that the Yonkers Board of Education has sufficient funding at some level below $203.6 million, then the Yonkers Board of Education will amend its 1993-94 budget plan retroactively ( signed by Judge Sonia Sotomayor ); Copies mailed (emil) (Entered: 09/02/1993)

11/07/1997	1668	NOTICE OF APPEAL by The State of NY, The Bd. of Regents of the State of NY, Carl T. Hayden Louise P. Matteoni, Jorge L. Batista, Edward J. Meyer, R. Carlos Carballada, Adelaide L. Sanford, Diane O'Neill McGivern, Saul B. Cohen, James C. Dawson, Robert M. Bennet, Robert M. Johnson, Peter M. Preyor, Anthony Bottar, Merryl H. Tisch, Harold O. Levy, Ena L. Farley, Dept. of Education of the State of NY, Richard P. Mills, Urban Development Corp. of the State of NY, Charles A. Gargano ; from [1663-1] judgment order, [1662-1] order this opinion and the order entered this date address and resolve all of the matters relating to the Yonkers Public Schools submitted to this Court following the remand of this case by the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, [1387-1] order Although the limited scope of this phase of the proceedings does not encompass an overall consideration of fiscal matters, it is appropriate to note, placing these issues in context, that Yonkers has had a long history of fundings its school system less generously than its more affluent Westchester neighbors. Because Yonkers has offered lower starting salaries than other Westchester communities or nearby NYC, has endured repeated budget crises, and perhaps because of the political and social turmoil which has been a part of Yonkers life for so long, teacher recruitment has not been easy. According to Assistant Supt. Joseph Michael Guerney, Yonkers spends less per capita for education than any other community in Westchester and would continue to do so even if the entire burden of funding EIP II were placed upon the City. Operating in this fiscal context and in a city

		which has in the past resisted housing desegregation efforts w/ astonishing tenacity, the YBE's task of integrating its long segregated school system is indeed a formidable one. We find that the YBE, its former Supt., Dr. Joan Raymond, and her successor, Dr. Donald Batista, and their staffs, addressed this task w/ enthusiasm and a sincere desire to make EIP I succeed. This case is markedly different from the many cases in which further relief is sought by class representative because the managers of the City's school system have been either passive or half-hearted in their efforts to desegregate. We are satisfied that Dr. Batista's evaluation of the problems confronting the YBE in its efforts to eradicate vestiges of segregation is an accurate one. We find that although minority students in Yonkers attend school in the same buildings as majority students, they are undergoing different educational experiences. Proof of this lies, we believe, in the data shown w/ respect to achievement scores, suspensions, retentions and drop-out rates. We emphasize that we have answered the three questions posed in our 7/10/92 Opinion only and have not addressed any questions relating to the State's liability for the existence of these conditions nor any question relating to the relative responsibility of the City and State. These further questions will be addressed at the next stage of these proceedings. The parties are to confer and advise the Court in writing by 10/4/93 when they will be ready to proceed to trial on the remaining questions . 02/24/1998	1696	REPLY by United States of Ame Re: motion to enforce SSLTPO (cd) (Entered: 02/27/1998)
02/26/1998	1697	AMENDED NOTICE OF APPEAL ; from [1691–1] judgment order, [1663–1] judgment order, [1662–1] order this opinion and the order entered this date address and resolve all of the matters relating to the Yonkers Public Schools submitted to this Court following the remand of this case by the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, [1387–1] order Although the limited scope of this phase of the proceedings does not encompass an overall consideration of fiscal matters, it is appropriate to note, placing these issues in context, that Yonkers has had a long history of fundings its school system less generously than its more affluent Westchester neighbors. Because Yonkers has offered lower starting salaries than other Westchester communities or nearby NYC, has endured repeated budget crises, and perhaps because of the political and social turmoil which has been a part of Yonkers life for so long, teacher recruitment has not been easy. According to Assistant Supt. Joseph Michael Guernsey, Yonkers spends less per capita for education than any other community in Westchester and would continue to do so even if the entire burden of funding EIP II were placed upon the City. Operating in this fiscal context and in a city which has in the past resisted housing desegregation efforts w/ astonishing tenacity, the YBE's task of integrating its long segregated school system is indeed a formidable one. We find that the YBE, its former Supt., Dr. Joan Raymond, and her successor, Dr. Donald Batista, and their staffs, addressed this task w/ enthusiasm and a sincere desire to make EIP I succeed. This case is markedly different from the many cases in which further relief is sought by class representative because the managers of the City's school system have been either passive or half–hearted in their efforts to desegregate. We are satisfied that Dr. Batista's evaluation of the problems confronting the YBE in its efforts to eradicate vestiges of segregation is an accurate one. We find that although minority students in Yonkers attend school in the same buildings as majority students, they are undergoing different educational experiences. Proof of this lies, we believe, in the data shown w/ respect to achievement scores, suspensions, retentions and drop–out rates. We emphasize that we have answered the three questions posed in our 7/10/92 Opinion only and have not addressed any questions relating to the State's liability for the existence of these conditions nor any question relating to the relative responsibility of the City and State. These further questions will be addressed at the next stage of these proceedings. The parties are to confer and advise the Court in writing by 10/4/93 when they will be ready to proceed to trial on the remaining questions . 03/24/1998	1708	ORDER, the Monitor's Opinion of 3/9/98 addresses the question of who should advance the approximate amount of $13.7 million which the proposed EIP II budget requires be provided to the Yonkers Board of Education by 4/15/98. The Court orders that the responsibility for providing the $13.7 million be shared equally by the City and the State with the understanding that this ruling is entirely without prejudice to the question, soon to be before the Court, as to how the ultimate costs of implementing EIP II shall be allocated. Once that allocation is determined, appropriate adjustments can readily be made to the extent that either party has borne more than its ultimately determined share of the $13.7 million. The State and City can and should work cooperatively in conjunction with the Monitor and, if appropriate the EFCB, in establishing the most efficient and least costly means of providing these funds. The cost of providing these funds will, of course, also enter into the final adjustments between the parties ( signed by Judge Leonard B. Sand ); Copies mailed (kw) Modified on 03/27/1998 (Entered: 03/25/1998)

Counsel believes such hours are not properly included and the request as to them is premature. Accordingly, the present request should be reduced by $9,375. 12/21/1998	1751	ORDER, the court having entered an Opinion and Order on 2/5/98, which has been published at 992 F. Supp. 672, 1998 WL 47822, and 1998 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1044, and having modified said Opinion and Order at the 12/1/98 hearing based on the waiver by defendant Urban Development Corp. of its statute of limitations defense, and having further consistently modified the Opinion and Order as requested in the 12/16/98 letter of the Asst. Attorney General; the Clerk is directed to enter the annexed modified Opinion and Order as modified this date, and to make it available for publication, and to request that it be published, in the same manner as the originally 2/5/98 Opinion and Order was published ( signed by Judge Leonard B. 12/21/1998	1752	MODIFIED OPINION AND ORDER #80054, on 10/8/97, following remand from the Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, 96 F.3d 600 (2d Cir.1996), this Court entered an Opinion and Order (1997 WL 629836) which addressed all of the liability matters relating directly to the Yonkers Public Schools; deferred issuance of a housing remedy order directing to the State and deferred a redetermination of whether the Urban Development Corp.'s conduct constituted a "continuing wrong" so that the NAACP's action against the UDC was not time barred. The UDC has now waived the statute of limitations defense with regard to the housing claims, and this defense is therefore now moot; we therefore find that the statute of limitations defense, which has been waived, does not bar the action against UDC for conduct for which the Court of Appeals has found it liable. This Court hereby directs the UDC and its Directors to submit a plan w/in 30 days for the provision of resources to implement the Housing Remedy Order heretofore established by this Court or to provide other suggested means of addressing the violation of the right of the class members to nondiscriminatory housing ( Signed by Judge Leonard B.
